

Entrance Antiphon

Rv 5:12; 1:6

How worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and divinity, and wisdom and strength and honour. To him belong glory and power for ever and ever.

A reading from the second book of Samuel

2 Sm 5:1-3

They anointed David king of Israel.

All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron. 'Look' they said 'we are your own flesh and blood. In days past when Saul was our king, it was you who led Israel in all their exploits; and the Lord said to you, "You are the man who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you shall be the leader of Israel.'" So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a pact with them at Hebron in the presence of the Lord, and they anointed David king of Israel.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 121:1-5. R. see v.2

Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the

Colossians

Col 1:12-20

He has taken us into the kingdom of his beloved Son.

We give thanks to the Father who has made it possible for you to join the saints and with them to inherit the light.

Because that is what he has done: he has taken us out of the power of darkness and created a place for us in the kingdom of the Son that he loves, and in him, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins. He is the image of the unseen God and the first-born of all creation, for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth: everything visible and everything invisible, Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignities, Powers – all things were created through him and for him. Before anything was created, he existed, and he holds all things in unity. Now the Church is his body, he is its head. As he is the Beginning, he was first to be born from the dead, so that he should be first in every way; because God wanted all perfection to be found in him and all things to be reconciled through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the cross.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Mk 11:9. 10

Alleluia, alleluia! Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according Luke

Lk 23:35-43

Lord remember me when you come into your kingdom.

The people stayed there before the cross watching Jesus. As for the leaders, they jeered at him. 'He saved others,' they said, 'let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.' The soldiers mocked him too, and when they approached to offer him vinegar they said, 'If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.' Above him there was an inscription: 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals hanging there abused him. 'Are you not the Christ?' he said. 'Save yourself and us as well.' But the other spoke up and rebuked him. 'Have you no fear of God at all?' he said. 'You got the same sentence as he did, but in our case we deserved it: we are paying for what we did. But this man has done nothing wrong. Jesus,' he said, 'remember me when you come into your kingdom.' 'Indeed, I promise you,' he replied, 'today you will be with me in paradise.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Letter from the Bishops of Victoria

State Election 2022

The Bishops of Victoria have written to the Catholic community in Victoria to provide an election guide designed to help Catholics consider and navigate key issues of significance, particularly those related to the common good. You are invited to read the guide and to prayerfully discern how your vote can contribute to the common good. The guide can be found at:

www.melbournecatholic.org/stateelection2022.

Prayer for the State Election

Heavenly Father,

*You are the source of goodness, justice and truth.
We thank you for the many freedoms we enjoy in Australia,
including free and fair elections.*

We entrust to you the State of Victoria and all who live within it.

We pray for the gift of wisdom ahead of the upcoming election.

Guide us in our deliberations, so we may seek to elect representatives who will work tirelessly to pursue the common good in all things.

We pray for all those standing for election and their families.

May all those elected work diligently to build a more just society.

*May our local community of Victoria be a place where peace and justice flourish, religious freedom is respected,
and all people, especially the most vulnerable are valued, respected and cared for.*

And may we each renew our commitment to do the same ourselves –

Following the example of Your Son, Jesus Christ, in all things.

Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.

Amen.

First Sunday of Advent - 27th November (Holy Day obligations)

Dear Fr. Cruz and Parishioners,

Congratulations and thanks for the celebrations of the Gembrook Church. Blessed by weather, gracious crowds, liturgy as good as one could imagine, an outpouring of hospitality in every way it was memorable. The Gembrook community, always welcoming and capable, produced a wonderful display of remembrances and hope for the future. Evident from many youngsters among us today.

Thank you for the invitation to join you; I am so glad that I still knew the way. For it was setting early on a Sunday and motoring through the quiet spaces of the little townships on the way to Gembrook.

With best wishes for yourself and the whole parish.

Fr. Peter Carrucan
