

St. Jude the Apostle Parish

49 George St, Scoresby

"In a spirit of Pastoral outreach, we, the people of the Parish, are called to serve with joy."

12th Sunday in ordinary time—Year B—23rd June 2024

Mark 4:35-41 we witness a profound moment where Jesus demonstrates His divine authority over nature, calming a fierce storm that threatens to overwhelm the disciples.

This passage beautifully illustrates that even in our most turbulent times, Jesus is with us, ready to bring peace and calm. It challenges us to trust in His love and power, reminding us that no storm is too great for Him to quiet. By placing our faith in Jesus, we can find tranquility amidst chaos, knowing that he cares deeply for us and is always in control.

Lord Jesus, in the midst of life's storms, help us to trust in Your power and love. Calm our fears and fill our hearts with Your peace. May we always remember that You are with us, guiding us through every challenge. Strengthen our faith and draw us closer to You. Amen

First Reading: Job 38:1. 8-11

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors
when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb,
when I wrapped it in a robe of mist
and made black clouds its swaddling bands;
when I marked the bounds it was not to cross
and made it fast with a bolted gate?
Come thus far, I said, and no farther:
here your proud waves shall break

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

Gospel: Mark 4:35-41

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

World Day of Refugees
Theme of Pope Francis's message :

God Walks with His People

The plight of refugees often mirrors the chaos and fear experienced by the disciples in the storm. Forced to flee their homes due to conflict, persecution, or disaster, refugees find themselves in a storm of uncertainty, fear and loss. They face overwhelming challenges. In the face of their immense struggles, let us remember that Jesus is with the refugees, just as He was with the disciples. He hears their cries and cares deeply for their well-being.

Our faith calls us to trust in His power to bring peace and to act as His hands and feet, bringing comfort and hope to those who are suffering.

Lord Jesus, just as You calmed the storm for Your disciples, bring peace and comfort to refugees facing the storms of life. Protect them, guide them to safety, and provide for their needs. Inspire us to act with compassion and love, being your hands and feet to those in need. Amen

VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY, SCORESBY WINTER APPEAL

The past few years have been tough for so many people. From natural disasters and a global pandemic to cost-of-living pressures and overseas conflicts. So many people have struggled to get by with respite appearing out of reach. For as difficult as things are right now, the reality facing a growing number of people is a cause for great concern. As housing across the country becomes less secure, it's people like Luke (in picture above) who are becoming the new face of disadvantage and homelessness in Australia. Parishioners are encouraged to donate generously to help society's work of helping most in need during winter by clicking the Scoresby Conference link:
