Reflecting on Mark 5:21-24, 35-43, we are reminded that Jesus's love is both powerful and personal. It reaches into our deepest fears and brokenness, offering healing and restoration. We are encouraged to approach Him with faith, no matter our circumstances, trusting in His compassion and power. His love is a beacon of hope, illuminating the darkest moments of our lives with the promise of His transformative presence. In our own lives, we can strive to emulate this love by being attentive to the needs of others, offering compassion and support, and believing in the power of love to bring healing and hope. Jesus's actions in this Gospel inspire us to live with faith, hope, and love, confident in the knowledge that we are deeply loved and never alone in our struggles.

Dear Lord, Thank You for Your boundless love and compassion. Strengthen our faith to trust in Your healing power and presence. Help us to reach out to others with the same love you show us, bringing hope and comfort in times of need. May we always remember that with You nothing is impossible. Amen

Sabbatical update—part two

"Dear friends, I hope everything is fine with you. As I complete my sabbatical this week, I wanted to share another update. This week, we had sessions on Catholic moral reasoning, focusing on societal challenges and approaching them with the love and compassion of Jesus. We listened to renowned scripture scholar Denis McBride, who took us on a journey with the prophet Jonah and Jesus. It was a mind-blowing experience that helped me understand my own identity, direction and outlook on life. He painted a personal portrait of Jesus in my life through the Gospels. Every Thursday evening, we take turns sharing our stories, vocations, missions, and the challenges we face in our ministries, which have been very inspiring and motivating. As a group, we visited several castles and old cathedrals, gaining knowledge about the rich history of Scotland, medieval church history, and the Christian faith's roots. We also had an outdoor session to reflect and commune with nature, experiencing God's presence. We were told it would be a shame to leave Scotland without visiting a Scottish whisky distillery, so we did that as a final chance to lift our spirits! This sabbatical at the monastery has been spiritually uplifting and nourishing for me. From here, I will fly to India to spend time with family and friends. I will then attend a spiritual orientation and retreat before returning to Melbourne. I want to thank Fr Joel for his enormous support during this sabbatical, as well as Fr Yoris, Fr Ken, Bishop Emeritus Tomlison, and all the priests who helped with the weekend masses and looking after our spiritual needs. I will continue to keep you in my thoughts and prayers. God bless you"—Fr Jerald

First Reading: Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

Death was not God's doing,
he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living.
To be – for this he created all;
the world's created things have health in them,
in them no fatal poison can be found,
and Hades holds no power on earth;
for virtue is undying.
Yet God did make man imperishable,
he made him in the image of his own nature;
it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world,
as those who are his partners will discover.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 8:7. 9. 13-15

You always have the most of everything – of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection – so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.

Gospel: Mark 5:21-24, 35-43

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him.

Some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kum!' which means, 'little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

*'When we give cheerfully and
accept gratefully,
everyone is blessed.'*
- Maya Angelou
