Dear Parishioners,

It is with a joyful heart that I join the community of St Jude's & St Simon's as your Parish Priest on the 19th of July.

I am joining you after being Parish Priest for the communities of Our Lady of the Pines in Donvale and Ss Peter and Paul's in Doncaster East for 9 years. Prior to this I spent 19 months as assistant priest at St Macartans in Mornington and a year at St Patrick's Cathedral and St Augustine's.

If you would like to know more about me please go to <https://melbourncatholic.org/news/god-had-a-different-plan-fr-jerald-mariadas> which has a full write up about me from the vocations office as a vocations promoter.

I look forward to joining you, dear parishioners, to walking in faith with you as we journey together and as I get to know all of you over the coming years. Please pray for me as I take up this new position as I will pray for you all.

Kind Regards,
Jerald Mariadas

Serve the Lord with Joy

First Reading: Wis 12:13 16-19

There is no god, other than you, who cares for everything, to whom you might have to prove that you never judged unjustly.
Your justice has its source in strength,
your sovereignty over all makes you lenient to all.
You show your strength when your sovereign power is questioned and you expose the insolence of those who know it;
but, disposing of such strength, you are mild in judgement,
you govern us with great lenience,
for you have only to will, and your power is there.
By acting thus you have taught a lesson to your people how the virtuous man must be kindly to his fellow men, and you have given your sons the good hope that after sin you will grant repentance.

Second Reading: Rom 8:26-27

The Spirit comes to help us in our weakness. For when we cannot choose words in order to pray properly, the Spirit himself expresses our plea in a way that could never be put into words, and God who knows everything in our hearts knows perfectly well what he means, and that the pleas of the saints expressed by the Spirit are according to the mind of God.

Gospel Mt 13:24-30

Jesus put a parable before the crowds, 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field. While everybody was asleep his enemy came, sowed darnel all among the wheat, and made off. When the new wheat sprouted and ripened, the darnel appeared as well. The owner's servants went to him and said, "Sir, was it not good seed that you sowed in your field? If so, where does the darnel come from?" "Some enemy has done this" he answered. And the servants said, "Do you want us to go and weed it out?" But he said, "No, because when you weed out the darnel you might pull up the wheat with it. Let them both grow till the harvest; and at harvest time I shall say to the reapers: First collect the darnel and tie it in bundles to be burnt, then gather the wheat into my barn."
