Reflection - This man was a son of God

By the time we have stood and listened to this lengthy Passion narrative, the listener may have started to wilt by the time we get to the death of Jesus. Yet, the gospel writer keeps one of the most important messages for this moment. As Jesus dies, a centurion standing by utters the inspired words,

"In truth, this man was a son of God."

Famously played by John Wayne in the movie, 'The Greatest Story Ever Told', the centurion is the voice of the gentile - the non-Jew - representing all those throughout the world who will recognise the truth of Jesus' life and purpose.

First Reading – A reading from the Prophet Isaiah

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue.
So that I may know how to reply to the wearied he provides me with speech.
Each morning he wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple.
The Lord has opened my ear.
For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away.
I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle.
The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults.
So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

Second Reading - A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

His state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross.
But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Did You Know?

- Golgotha is a Semitic word which means 'skull'. The name Calvary comes from the Latin translation of 'skull'. It is likely that the name comes from the habitual use of the site for executions.
- * The Passion or Palm Sunday is the beginning of what is known as Holy Week, a period of intense preparation for the ceremonies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday.
  - * The Passion of Christ refers to his arrest, trial and death.
  - * Jesus is in Jerusalem at this time to celebrate the Feast of Passover.

Stewardship Corner

"Pilate again said to them, 'Then what shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?' And they cried out again, 'Crucify him.'" – Mark 15:12-13

Jesus told us "whatever you do for the least of my bothers, you do for me." Every day we are presented opportunities to help someone. Every day we have the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others. Pray for the strength and courage to stand up for those in need of our help.

There is no 6.30pm Mass Easter Sunday evening

Holy Week:

The Church celebrates today as both Palm Sunday and Passion Sunday. It is on Palm Sunday that we enter Holy Week, and welcome Jesus into our lives, asking him to allow us a share in his suffering, death and resurrection.

This is also the time we remember and relive the events which brought about our redemption and salvation. That is why the Holy Week liturgy presents us with the actual events of the dying and rising of Jesus.

The liturgy also enables us to experience in our lives here and now what Jesus went through then. In other words, we commemorate and relive during this week our own dying and rising in Jesus, which result in our healing, reconciliation, and redemption. Just as Jesus did, we too must lay down our lives freely by actively participating in the Holy Week liturgies.

In doing so, we are allowing Jesus to forgive us our sins, to heal the wounds in us caused by our sins and the sins of others and to transform us more completely into the image and likeness of God. Thus we will be able to live more fully the divine life we received at Baptism.

Proper participation in the Holy Week liturgy will also deepen our relationship with God, increase our faith and strengthen our lives as disciples of Jesus. But let us remember that Holy Week can become "holy" for us only if we actively and consciously take part in the liturgies of this week. This is also the week when we should lighten the burden of Christ's passion as daily experienced by the hungry, the poor, the sick, the homeless, the lonely and the outcast through our corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

The Passion Sunday liturgy combines two contrasting moments, one of glory, the other of suffering - the welcome of Jesus into Jerusalem and the drama of his unjust trial and suffering culminating in his crucifixion and death.

EASTER TRIDUUM

Holy Thursday - Good Friday – Easter Sunday

The three days of the Easter Triduum are to be celebrated as the one major event in the Church's calendar.

The Triduum begins with the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, including the washing of the feet, and culminates in the Easter Vigil, featuring the service of Light on Easter Sunday.

It is in the Eucharist that we find the 'source and summit' of our faith!

EASTER EGGS – Slavery free Chocolate

When you choose your chocolate this Easter, or anytime, look for a label that shows the cocoa has been sourced ethically. This means it doesn't come from the sweat and tears of children, trafficked or in forced labour in West Africa.

The best option is FAIRTRADE. Other ethical sources for chocolate are UTZ CERTIFIED & RAINFOREST ALLIANCE

"every person ought to have the awareness that purchasing is always a moral – and not simply an economic – act."

WORKING WITH CHILDREN CHECK - COMPULSORY

The Archdiocese of Melbourne is committed to the care and safety of children and vulnerable persons. The Archdiocese is committed to the promotion of best practice in child safety and providing a safe environment for children and vulnerable persons.

It is a legal a requirement that all parishioners who assist in the Parish in any capacity must have a valid Working with Children Check. E.g. Readers, Special Ministers, Choir members, Fair/Raffle volunteers etc. Volunteer Working with Children Checks are free, applications can be completed on-line.

Please ensure that you have a current WWC check. If you have recently renewed your card please notify the Parish Office.

A new CLEANING ROSTER has been prepared. Due to the retirement of a number of faithful volunteers we are in desperate need of additional parishioners willing to go on this roster. Please consider helping to maintain our Church.

Commitment to this roster would be once every three months. If you can help please contact the parish office on 9763 7302 or email scoresby@cam.org.au
Thank you.
