Reflection –

The Shepherd Messiah

The gospels go to great lengths to affirm the lineage of Jesus and associate him with the house of David, the first great Jewish king. David began life as a simple boy tending his father's flock of sheep. When the line of kings was instigated through David they were charged with being 'shepherds' of their people. However, down through the line of kings, this care for the people was lost and they ceased to be 'shepherds'. Jesus' claim to be the good shepherd is his claim to be in the line of the true kings of Israel – a shepherd of the people.

1st Reading –A reading from the Acts of the Apostles
 Filled with the Holy Spirit, Peter said: ‘Rulers of the people, and elders! If you are questioning us today about an act of kindness to a cripple, and asking us how he was healed, then I am glad to tell you all, and would indeed be glad to tell the whole people of Israel, that it was by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, the one you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by this name and by no other that this man is able to stand up perfectly healthy, here in your presence, today. This is the stone rejected by you the builders, but which has proved to be the keystone. For of all the names in the world given to men, this is the only one by which we can be saved.’

2nd Reading a reading from the St John
 Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God’s children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is.

Gospel – A reading from the Gospel according to Luke
 Jesus said:
 ‘I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd is one who lays down his life for his sheep.
 The hired man, since he is not the shepherd and the sheep do not belong to him, abandons the sheep and runs away as soon as he sees a wolf coming, and then the wolf attacks and scatters the sheep; this is because he is only a hired man and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd; I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for my sheep.
 And there are other sheep I have that are not of this fold, and these I have to lead as well. They too will listen to my voice, and there will be only one flock and one shepherd. The Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me; I lay it down of my own free will, and as it is in my power to lay it down, so it is in my power to take it up again; and this is the command I have been given by my Father.’

Symbols and Images
 In Australia, we have visions of vast sheep farms where the flock is contained by fences but this is not the way shepherds worked in Jesus’ time. Then, shepherds wandered the countryside with their sheep in search of pasture and guided them away from dangers like steep ravines or bramble thickets. A shepherd who owns the sheep looks after them well because they are his livelihood

Stewardship Corner
“I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice.” – John 10:14-16
 When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for things that you want? Do you ever ask Jesus what He wants you to do? How do you listen for the response? The answer is usually in “quiet whispers”. Take time in silent, daily prayer to hear His response.

Thoughts on the Gospel
 Lost sheep are being carried on the Shepherd’s shoulders
 The Gospel reading of today’s liturgy, ‘I AM the good shepherd’..., takes us deep into the mystery of what God has done for us in Jesus Christ – and, as we shall see, it tells us of how God’s initiative in the Paschal Mystery was conceived in the depths of the Trinitarian Life itself.
 The Good Shepherd theme has had a great impact on Christian consciousness. One of the earliest and most repeated motifs of Christian art is the youthful shepherd carrying the lost sheep home on his shoulders

 The image it suggests is so telling that it has featured prominently in the Church’s preaching in every age. As so often happens with the best things in life, we tend to take this theme for granted. Today’s text helps us to find a fresh appreciation of its implications. In it Jesus explains these implications by reference to the Paschal Mystery.
 He says that he is the “good” shepherd – in contrast to the unfaithful shepherds who have failed God’s people, thinking only of their own interests - because, as he three times repeats, he “lays down his life” for them. He lays it down, he explains, “in order to take it up again.” In his Resurrection, he will be a source of life for them. And in this drama of his death and resurrection, he is carrying out and making clear to the human family what his Father wills for them – an enterprise so dear to the Father that he looks upon the Son’s obedience with a renewed love.
 From a homily on the Gospel by Fr John Thornhill sm

Exploring the Word
 King David had been a shepherd as a boy so the image of the Shepherd Messiah underlies this text. But the intimacy of Jesus’ relationship with his flock goes beyond even this. This gospel is a statement of the seriousness of Jesus’ commitment to the Father’s will and his self-giving love for humankind. Jesus’ life is freely given for his flock.
 It is sometimes thought that Jesus died to satisfy the will of the Father imposed on the Son. This is not so. Jesus’ gift was a free gift because he responded at all times to that which was most profound in him: the Father’s love which he wished to make known to the world. It is generous, self-giving love for others.

Sharing the Tradition
 The Eucharistic Prayer, the heart of the Eucharist, is the great prayer of praise and thanks addressed to God. It recalls Jesus’ Passover from death to life and, in remembering, unleashes the power of that event in our present lives. The Spirit is invoked to transform the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of the Lord. It is a Trinitarian Prayer.

Did you know?
 The Latin word for shepherd is the root of the word pastor which is often used to describe the priest who leads the community.
 From this Latin root we also derive other terms such as pastoral associate, pastoral council and pastoral care, all of which imply a duty of love and care towards others.
 Bishops carry a staff known as a crosier which is the shepherd’s crook and a symbol of the care of the bishop for his people.
 John’s Gospel will be read for some weeks during this period. John is the latest of the written gospels; it was probably composed at the very end of the century.

ANZAC DAY MASS

 Our Parish Mass for Anzac Day will be held on Wednesday 25th April, at 9.00am.
 “To pray, reflect and give thanks for the service and sacrifice of those men and women who have served and continue to serve in defence of our values and freedom.”
 There will be a ‘cup of tea’ following, please bring a small plate of Anzac biscuits to share.

Traditions and Symbols
Rosemary

 Rosemary is worn as a symbol of remembrance on Anzac Day. It is a herb found growing wild on the Gallipoli Peninsula. The Flanders Poppy is also becoming increasingly associated with Anzac Day, although it was traditionally only worn on Remembrance Day, 11 November.
The Last Post

 The Last Post historically has been used to signify the end of the day. It is played during ceremonies to serve as a tribute to the dead.

ANZAC EVE MASS FOR VETERANS: St Simon’s
 A Mass to honour and pray for those who have died for our country will be celebrated at St. Simon’s Catholic Church, 2 Taylors Lane, Rowville at 7.30pm on Tuesday April 24.
 The Mass will include an Entrance Procession of Veterans and Flags, and the Traditional Requiem, the Ode, a special Blessing for veterans and the Last Post and Rouse will all be important elements.

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY (World Day of Vocations)
 Today is the World Day of Vocations. Pope Francis tells us: We will never discover the special, personal calling that God has in mind for us if we remain enclosed in ourselves, in our usual way of doing things... We could lose the chance to dream big and to play our part in the unique and original story that God wants to write with us.
 God calls young people from our local communities to serve as priests and consecrated religious. We all have a role to play in helping young people to ‘dream big’ and hear this call.
 What can I do to foster vocations from this community?

EASTER OFFERING ENVELOPES are available from the foyer table today. These Offerings and the Christmas Offerings form the bulk of the Priests’ income, not only in our Parish but all priests of the Archdiocese. Thank you

SACRAMENTAL PROGRAM – Next Week 29th
