As we give up all for Jesus,
we will gain all

I abandon myself to your will
Do with me whatever you want
I will only be grateful for whatever you do
I'm prepared for anything at all
I commit my life to your hands
I offer it all to you
The only affection
of my heart and my soul
Because, Oh Lord, I love you

Serve the Lord with Joy

1st Reading – Wisdom 7:7-11

I prayed, and understanding was given me; I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me. I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones; compared with her, I held riches as nothing. I reckoned no priceless stone to be her peer, for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her silver ranks as mud. I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light, since her radiance never sleeps. In her company all good things came to me, at her hands riches not to be numbered.

2nd Reading – Hebrews 4:12-13

The word of God is something alive and active; it cuts like any double-edged sword but more finely: it can slip through the place where the soul is divided from the spirit, or joints from the marrow; it can judge the secret emotions and thoughts. No created thing can hide from him; everything is uncovered and open to the eyes of the one to whom we must give account of ourselves.

Gospel – Mark 10:17-30

Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You must not kill; You must not commit adultery; You must not steal; You must not bring false witness; You must not defraud; Honour your father and mother.' And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days.' Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, 'There is one thing you lack. Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth.

Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them, 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.' They were more astonished than ever. 'In that case' they said to one another, 'who can be saved?' Jesus gazed at them. 'For men' he said, 'it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God.'

Peter took this up. 'What about us?' he asked him. 'We have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'I tell you solemnly, there is no one who has left house, brothers, sisters, father, children or land for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not be repaid a hundred times over, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and land – not without persecutions – now in this present time and, in the world to come, eternal life.'

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSS

This Sunday's readings confront us with the need to make choices in life, choices for God. They also remind us that no significant choice is without its price. However, if we make the right choice, we are assured that we will be richly rewarded.

We all want to be happy in life. We just don't always know which doors to open, and how far to enter them. We need wisdom for that. The more options that are open to us, the more difficult it is to choose, but choose we must. To choose one option is to relinquish the others. The young man in the gospel wanted eternal life. Surely there is nothing more worthy than that. However, the price he was asked to pay was more than he had expected, and he went away saddened. To choose is to face the consequences of the word of God, and sometimes this is as sharp as a two-edged sword.

One of the mysteries of faith is the incomprehensible generosity of God. We choose wisdom instead of all of the good things of the world, and we receive these good things along with wisdom itself. We are asked to relinquish all of the things that we value, and we get them back a hundredfold. We are invited to take a step into the unknown. We are told that we will not fall. However, we are never sure of this until we take the step and discover that we have not fallen. God demands so much, but gives so much more.

Serve the Lord with Joy

Plenary Council 2020
Listen to what the Spirit is saying...

What is a Plenary Council?

A Plenary Council is the highest formal gathering of all local churches in a country. Our Plenary Council 2020 is being held so that we can dialogue about the future of the Catholic Church in Australia.

The last time the Catholic Church in Australia held a Plenary Council was in 1937 and much has changed since then.

Some important questions will be:

- What are we called to do now?
- Who are we called to be now?
- How do we need to change?

Does my voice, my experience, sharing my story really matter?

Yes absolutely! Each of us is called as children of God to respond to Pope Francis's invitation to become a Church of faith-filled people who speak boldly and with passion, and who listen deeply with an open and humble heart.

What's next?

An invitation is extended to all parishioners to an evening to explore and gain an understanding of the Plenary Council. This will be held at Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, Orange Grove, Bayswater on Wednesday 17th October between 6:30 pm and 8:30 pm. Please RSVP via the parish office (9763 7302 or scoresby@cam.org.au).

Movie and Soup Lunch – October 24th

Time - 10:30am to 2:30pm

Parishioners of St. Jude's are invited to this event to be held in our Community Centre . The Movie – ALL SAINTS is based on the inspiring true story of salesman-turned-pastor Michael Spurlock (John Corbett), the tiny church he was ordered to shut down, and a group of refugees from Southeast Asia. Together, they risked everything to plant seeds for a future that might just save them all.

Please register your full name and phone number on the sign up sheets on the foyer tables.

Further enquiries and cancellations – please ring Maureen Buick on 0417634600

Living Icons: Mothers, Fathers & The Gospel of the Family.

New Video and print resources highlighting the role of both a mother and a father in family life have been produced by the Life, Marriage & Family Office. Print copies of the booklet are available in parishes from Sunday 7 October. The accompanying videos can be viewed online at : www.cam.org.au/lifemarriagefamily.

We encourage you to watch and share these free resources with anyone you think will find them helpful.

St Jude's Parish Fair Committee Further Committee Members Required

The 2019 Fair is fast approaching, and we are asking for your support. As it stands currently, some members of the Fair Committee are unable to commit to being involved as much as they once may have.

We need further parishioners to join the committee to help spread the load or organising the 2019 Fair. It would be sad to not have our annual Fair, which has always been a great social event, and has contributed towards many projects for the Parish and both St Jude's Primary and Holy Trinity Primary schools.

We invite you to our committee meeting on Wednesday, 17th October, at 7:30 p.m. in the St Jude's Hall, Theatrette to garner your support, as it will help us to make the decision as to whether we will plan for the Fair to go ahead in 2019.

If you are interested in contributing to the organisation of the Fair, but are unable to attend on this date, please contact Chris Shelly (0418 355 339 or stjudesfair@gmail.com), in advance to advice of your support for the 2019 Fair.

SPIRITUAL LEADERS FORMATION PROGRAM

This one-year, part-time program held on Friday mornings in Box Hill is offered to people in various positions of leadership, spiritual formation and outreach ministries. It is suitable for priests and ministers, lay ecclesial ministers, chaplains, community leaders, principals and nurses.

The program, which commences 22 Feb 2019, focuses on personal integration of the theory and practice of a contemplative, discerning approach to pastoral ministry.

Applications close 16 Nov 2018.

Contact Heart of Life for the brochure and application form: holsc@bigpond.com or tel 9890 1101.
