Thank you to all those who continually "Serve the Lord with joy" by participating on these rosters.

I'm in love with a king
who became a slave
I'm in love with a God
who is humble
Cause you gotta go down
if you wanna go up
And You've gotta go lower
If you wanna go higher and higher
You've gotta hide and do it in secret
If you wanna be seen by God
It's the inside-outside
Upside-down kingdom
Where you lose to gain
And you die to live
- Song by Misty Edwards

Serve the Lord with Joy

1st Reading – Isaiah 53:10-11

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering. If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life and through him what the Lord wishes will be done. His soul's anguish over he shall see the light and be content. By his sufferings shall my servant justify many, taking their faults on himself.

2nd Reading – Hebrews 4:14-16

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

Gospel – Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him, 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them: 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSS

When we set out to follow Jesus, faithful to the promises that we made at baptism to renounce sin and live lives directed by the Spirit, we normally do so with generosity of heart. However, after we have borne the burdens of this decision and realise some of the implications of our commitment, we begin to wonder if it was worth it. We believe that God will generously bless us. Still, would it be so wrong to hope for a little more, especially if we have made significant sacrifices along the way?

Of those to whom much has been given, much will be required in return. The closer we are to Jesus, the more we will be expected to mirror him. The great ones in the reign of God, the ones who exercise authority over others, must be the servants of the rest. Parents, teachers, civil authorities, managers of every kind, pastoral leaders must all be servants, as Jesus was a servant. We will also have to drink from his cup of suffering and be baptised into his death. As we draw close to the one who gave his life as an offering for sin, we will find that the same self-sacrifice is being asked of us. When we struggle with the misfortunes that we face because of our commitment to Jesus, we will have him as an inspiration and a model to follow. He can sympathise with our weaknesses, identify with our suffering. We can draw strength from his example and hope from his kindness.

Celebrating our Multiculturalism

On Sunday, 18th November (11:30am – 3:00pm) the people of St Jude's will gather in the Parish Centre to celebrate our Multiculturalism. All parishioners are warmly invited to attend.

Catch up with friends or make it a family day. Bring a light lunch but also enjoy the opportunity to sample some of the many culinary delights prepared by parishioners from such countries as Mauritius, South Africa, Korea, Italy and many more. Tea, coffee and Irish coffee available.

For your entertainment, the very talented Derrick J will be performing, as well as some of our parishioners performing their country's native cultural song and dance.

It's a free event, so put it in your calendar. Come along and enjoy one another's culture and companionship.

Parishioners of St. Jude's are invited to this event to be held in our Community Centre .
The Movie – ALL SAINTS is based on the inspiring true story of salesman-turned-pastor Michael Spurlock (John Corbett), the tiny church he was ordered to shut down, and a group of refugees from Southeast Asia. Together, they risked everything to plant seeds for a future that might just save them all.

LOURDES DAY MASS

All Parishioners are cordially invited to the 2018 Lourdes Day Mass at St Patrick's Cathedral at 10.30am on Saturday 1 December.

This is an occasion to come together in prayer with those who are sick, infirm or elderly, and their carers. As many are unlikely to ever visit Lourdes, it's like Lourdes coming to them.

St Jude's Parish Fair Committee

The 2019 St Jude's Parish Fair is currently being planned, to be held on Saturday 16th March 2019. An integral part of this planning is having sufficient volunteers on the Fair committee, due to increasing work and family commitments a number of our long term committee members are unable to continue providing the same level of support into the planning and preparation process as they have in previous years. We are therefore calling for new volunteers to join this committee to ensure that the fair continues to support the parish and community.

If you are interested in joining the committee, please contact us via e-mail at stjudesfair@gmail.com and we will confirm the meeting time with you.
