PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

In a spirit of Pastoral Outreach of St. Jude's Parish, we, the people of the parish, are called to "Serve the Lord with Joy". We respect diversity and welcome all who choose to belong to our community. By sharing our gifts and resources generously, we support and encourage all people who come our way. Let all our voices be heard in a spirit of openness that fosters ongoing communication across our Parish.

REFLECTION: A LOVING PERSON

Jesus fulfilled the ideal of love Paul speaks about.
 He was never in a hurry, and was always kindness itself.
 He never envied anybody, and never boasted about himself.
 He was never snobbish, or rude, or selfish.
 He did not take offence easily, nor did he keep on talking about the wrong things other people did.
 He preferred to remember the good things and to rejoice in them.
 He was tough – he could face anything.
 And he never lost trust in God, or in people.
 He never lost hope; he never gave in.
 He never stopped loving.

Serve the Lord with Joy

1st Reading – Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19

In the days of Josiah, the word of the Lord was addressed to me, saying, 'Before I formed you in the womb I knew you; before you came to birth I consecrated you; I have appointed you as prophet to the nations. So now brace yourself for action. Stand up and tell them all I command you. Do not be dismayed at their presence, or in their presence I will make you dismayed. I, for my part, today will make you into a fortified city, a pillar of iron, and a wall of bronze to confront all this land: the kings of Judah, its princes, its priests and the country people. They will fight against you but shall not overcome you, for I am with you to deliver you – it is the Lord who speaks.'

2nd Reading – 1 Corinthians 12:31- 13:13

Be ambitious for the higher gifts. And I am going to show you a way that is better than any of them. If I have all the eloquence of men or of angels, but speak without love, I am simply a gong booming or a cymbal clashing. If I have the gift of prophecy, understanding all the mysteries there are, and knowing everything, and if I have faith in all its fullness, to move mountains, but without love, then I am nothing at all. If I give away all that I possess, piece by piece, and if I even let them take my body to burn it, but am without love, it will do me no good whatever.

Love is always patient and kind; it is never jealous; love is never boastful or conceited; it is never rude or selfish; it does not take offence, and is not resentful. Love takes no pleasure in other people's sins but delights in the truth; it is always ready to excuse, to trust, to hope, and to endure whatever comes.

Love does not come to an end. But if there are gifts of prophecy, the time will come when they must fail; or the gift of languages, it will not continue for ever; and knowledge – for this, too, the time will come when it must fail. For our knowledge is imperfect and our prophesying is imperfect; but once perfection comes, all imperfect things will disappear. When I was a child, I used to talk like a child, and think like a child, and argue like a child, but now I am a man, all childish ways are put behind me. Now we are seeing a dim reflection in a mirror; but then we shall be seeing face to face. The knowledge that I have now is imperfect; but then I shall know as fully as I am known. In short, there are three things that last: faith, hope and love; and the greatest of these is love.

Gospel – Luke 4:21-30

Jesus began to speak in the synagogue, 'This text is being fulfilled today even as you listen.' And he won the approval of all, and they were astonished by the gracious words that came from his lips.

They said, 'This is Joseph's son, surely?' But he replied, 'No doubt you will quote me the saying, "Physician, heal yourself" and tell me, "We have heard all that happened in Capernaum, do the same here in your own countryside."' And he went on, 'I tell you solemnly, no prophet is ever accepted in his own country.

'There were many widows in Israel, I can assure you, in Elijah's day, when heaven remained shut for three years and six months and a great famine raged throughout the land, but Elijah was not sent to any one of these: he was sent to a widow at Zarephath, a Sidonian town. And in the prophet Elisha's time there were many lepers in Israel, but none of these was cured, except the Syrian, Naaman.'

When they heard this everyone in the synagogue was enraged. They sprang to their feet and hustled him out of the town; and they took him up to the brow of the hill their town was built on, intending to throw him down the cliff, but he slipped through the crowd and walked away.

PARISH MEETING – ALL INVITED

The Parish Leadership Team (PLT) invites all parishioners to a meeting in the Parish Centre on Wednesday, February 20. This meeting is to give parishioners the opportunity to bring questions, ideas and feedback related to the Parish whilst also giving the team the opportunity to inform parishioners of the purpose of the PLT and the projects the team might be working on this year. If you cannot attend but would like to raise a question, propose an idea or provide feedback, please email the PLT at Pastoral.stjudes@gmail.com by Tuesday February 19.

Tea and coffee will be available from 7.00pm with the meeting beginning at 7.30pm. We hope you can join us and we look forward to hearing your ideas and questions.

-St Jude's Parish Leadership Team

Do you have a passion for the celebration of our liturgy? Are you interested in contributing, organising and learning about our liturgical celebrations? Then, this is for you!!

As a parish we are looking to renew our liturgy team. An active member of this team, would assist with the preparation of our seasonal celebrations (such as Lent and Easter) and organise and help with our various ministries (extraordinary ministers, readers, altar servers, music, etc). The liturgy team will be holding its first meeting in the second week of February (starting 11th February).

If you are interested in contributing to the liturgies celebrated at St. Jude's, and/or would like to be a member, please contact Leon Raj via email (leonraj3156@gmail.com) or phone (0418 800 972, after 7pm).

In December last year, a Listen and Dialogue session was held at St. Jude's, where a number of parishioners gathered together to listen and share with each other, their thoughts on the question posed by the Plenary Council – "what do you think that God is asking of us in Australia at this time?" The responses were submitted to Plenary Council as input to the formation of the agenda for Plenary Council in 2020. Here is an extract of some of the thoughts shared.

To be Christ like – living what the Gospel says

Sense of loss and trust in Church due to sexual abuse

Needs of the young people

We have responsibility to use this opportunity to move forward in the church

People's church – represents parishioners of church, not of the building

Reflecting and inclusiveness – changing with the times

We need to be more in more involved in the operating of the parish

Inclusive language

Overhaul training of seminarians

Look in into new ways of liturgy

Church needs to be a sacred place

More understanding and acceptance of people from different faith backgrounds

Should be an inclusive church for everyone – in all aspects of men, women, young people not limited to Catholics, married couples & priests

JUDEANS

The Judeans will meet for morning tea/lunch at 11 o'clock on Tuesday 5th February at the Stamford Hotel. All welcome. Any enquiries ring Maureen on 9763 6463.

VISITING THE SICK

If any of you are sick/elderly or know someone who is sick/elderly and would like Fr. Longinus to visit them for Pastoral Care. Kindly fill in the details in the "Visiting the Sick/elderly" sheet in the foyer and/or call the Parish Office on 03 9763 7302.

NOTICE – COMMUNITY CENTRE ROOF

We are pleased to inform you that the Church has received a grant of $15,000 from the Stronger Communities Program towards the cost of replacing the Community Centre Roof. We express our thanks to the office of Hon. Alan Tudge MP for his support.
