A PRAYER FOR THE END OF THE DAY

Grant, O Lord, that each day
before we enter the little death of sleep, we may undergo the little
judgement of the past day,
so that every wrong deed
may be forgiven
and every unholy thought set right.
Let nothing go down into the depths of our being which has not been forgiven and sanctified.
Then we shall be ready
for our final birth into eternity,
and look forward with love and hope
to standing before you,
who art both judge and saviour,
holy judge and loving saviour.
(Bishop Appleton)

1st Reading – Ecclesiasticus 15:15-20

If you wish, you can keep the commandments, to behave faithfully is within your power. He has set fire and water before you; put out your hand to whichever you prefer. Man has life and death before him; whichever a man likes better will be given him. For vast is the wisdom of the Lord; he is almighty and all-seeing. His eyes are on those who fear him, he notes every action of man. He never commanded anyone to be godless, he has given no one permission to sin.

2nd Reading – 1 Corinthians 2:6-10

We have a wisdom to offer those who have reached maturity: not a philosophy of our age, it is true, still less of the masters of our age, which are coming to their end. The hidden wisdom of God which we teach in our mysteries is the wisdom that God predestined to be for our glory before the ages began. It is a wisdom that none of the masters of this age have ever known, or they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory; we teach what scripture calls: the things that no eye has seen and no ear has heard, things beyond the mind of man, all that God has prepared for those who love him.

These are the very things that God has revealed to us through the Spirit, for the Spirit reaches the depths of everything, even the depths of God.

Gospel - Matthew 5:17-37

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not imagine that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have come not to abolish them but to complete them. I tell you solemnly, till heaven and earth disappear, not one dot, one little stroke, shall disappear from the Law until its purpose is achieved. Therefore, the man who infringes even one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be considered the least in the kingdom of heaven; but the man who keeps them and teaches them will be considered great in the kingdom of heaven.

'For I tell you, if your virtue goes no deeper than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven.

'You have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not kill; and if anyone does kill he must answer for it before the court. But I say this to you: anyone who is angry with his brother will answer for it before the court; if a man calls his brother "Fool" he will answer for it before the Sanhedrin; and if a man calls him "Renegade" he will answer for it in hell fire. So then, if you are bringing your offering to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your offering there before the altar, go and be reconciled with your brother first, and then come back and present your offering. Come to terms with your opponent in good time while you are still on the way to the court with him, or he may hand you over to the judge and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. I tell you solemnly, you will not get out till you have paid the last penny.

'You have learnt how it was said: You must not commit adultery. But I say this to you: if a man looks at a woman lustfully, he has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye should cause you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body thrown into hell. And if your right hand should cause you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body go to hell.

'It has also been said: Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a writ of dismissal. But I say this to you: everyone who divorces his wife, except for the case of fornication, makes her an adulteress; and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

'Again, you have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not break your oath, but must fulfil your oaths to the Lord. But I say this to you: do not swear at all, either by heaven, since that is God's throne; or by the earth, since that is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, since that is the city of the great king. Do not swear by your own head either, since you cannot turn a single hair white or black. All you need say is "Yes" if you mean yes, "No" if you mean no; anything more than this comes from the evil one.'

Home Visits and Holy Communion to the Homebound

If you are sick, elderly or homebound or know of someone who is, and would like someone to visit for Pastoral Care, or to have Holy Communion brought to them, please contact the Parish Office during parish office hours (9763 7302).

Novel Coronavirus

To reduce the risk of exposure and transmission of the Novel Coronavirus, the Parish has introduced the following precautionary steps:

- Holy Communion from the chalice is suspended.
- Holy Communion is to be received only on the hand (not on the tongue).
- It is recommended that there be no hand shaking during the Sign of Peace, instead smile or bow slightly.

Additionally, after reviewing the advice issued by the Department of Health and the World Health Organisation, we recommend that:

- Practice cough etiquette (cover coughs and sneezes with flexed elbow, handkerchief or disposable tissue).
- After using the bathroom facilities thoroughly wash hands with soap and water for 20 seconds and help young children to do the same. If soap and water are unavailable, use an alcohol-based sanitiser.
- Avoid close contact with anyone who has a fever and cough.
- If you have a fever, a cough and difficulty breathing, seek early medical care and share travel history with your health care provider.

Let us also pray for God's protection on all people and especially for the healthcare workers involved.

Thank you for your assistance and understanding.

The Parish of Scoresby 50th Anniversary

This year, the Parish of Scoresby reached the wonderful milestone of 50 years as a parish. Our community will recognise this great achievement on Sunday 17th May when the Archbishop will celebrate Mass with St Jude's parishioners' past and present. Following the Mass, we will gather in the Community Centre for a celebratory lunch.

The committee is in the process of organising this event and we are seeking help with some items.

➤ Invitations: If you know the address/email/phone number of a former parishioner(s) who you think would like to be invited can you please write their details on the sheets provided in the foyer.

➤ Memorabilia: If you have photographs taken at events over the past 50 years or any piece of memorabilia that would be of interest to people, can you please share them with us. This can be done by either emailing pastoral.stjudes@gmail.com or speaking with Preethi in the parish office and she will contact the committee.
