“Blessed is she who believed that the promise made her by the Lord would be fulfilled.”

- a Reflection for the Feast of the Assumption

In her book The Reed of God, the Catholic writer and artist Caryl Houselander speaks poetically of Mary, the mother of Jesus, as “a reed, / straight and simple / growing by a lake / in Nazareth”. Mary, like a reed, is open to the Spirit of the Lord dwelling in her heart and soul, “a reed that is empty / until the breath of God / fills it with infinite music”. She is a reed that bends to carry the music of love and the Son of God in her very body: “The word of God / is infinite music / in a little reed”.

The openness of Mary to God's word allows the immensity of God's love to fill her physically, spiritually and totally. God's fullness and goodness in the lives of Elizabeth and Mary find expression in words of thanksgiving and joy. Openness and hospitality of heart are gifts we can cultivate in our own lives and offer to others.

Serve the Lord with Joy

First Reading: Jer 38:4-6 8-10

The king's leading men spoke to the king. 'Let Jeremiah be put to death: he is unquestionably disheartening the remaining soldiers in the city, and all the people too, by talking like this. The fellow does not have the welfare of this people at heart so much as its ruin.' 'He is in your hands as you know,' King Zedekiah answered 'for the king is powerless against you.' So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the well of Prince Malchiah in the Court of the Guard, letting him down with ropes. There was no water in the well, only mud, and into the mud Jeremiah sank.

Ebed-melech came out from the palace and spoke to the king. 'My lord king,' he said, 'these men have done a wicked thing by treating the prophet Jeremiah like this: they have thrown him into the well where he will die.' At this the king gave Ebed-melech the Cushite the following order: 'Take three men with you from here and pull the prophet Jeremiah out of the well before he dies.'

Second Reading: Heb 12:1-4

With so many witnesses in a great cloud on every side of us, we too, then, should throw off everything that hinders us, especially the sin that clings so easily, and keep running steadily in the race we have started. Let us not lose sight of Jesus, who leads us in our faith and brings it to perfection: for the sake of the joy which was still in the future, he endured the cross, disregarding the shameful of it, and from now on has taken his place at the right of God's throne. Think of the way he stood such opposition from sinners and then you will not give up for want of courage. In the fight against sin, you have not yet had to keep fighting to the point of death.

Gospel: Lk 12:49-53

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I have come to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were blazing already! There is a baptism I must still receive, and how great is my distress till it is over!

'Do you suppose that I am here to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. For from now on a household of five will be divided: three against two and two against three; the father divided against the son, son against father, mother against daughter, daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.'

We ask for the peace and grace of Eternal Life for Pio Dellisola, Margaret, Neneta, Shirley, Robert & Gerald and for those whose memories are sacred to us at this time especially:
