Reconciliation by appointment (contact Fr Mark/Fr Samuel at Parish Office)

Father, you made the Earth, bringing forth diverse creatures.
Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night revealing knowledge.

You called humans to keep your garden.
You placed us into right relationships with creatures
to listen, and learn, to safeguard life's conditions.
But we turn in and away from our co-creatures.
Closing our ears to our fellow creatures.
We fail to listen to the cries of the poor and the needs of the most vulnerable.
We silence the voices who teach us to care for the Earth.

We lament the loss of species and habitats.
We grieve loss of human cultures,
and displaced lives or perished livelihoods.
Creation cries out as forests crackle,
animals flee fires of injustice
by our unwillingness to listen.

Call us, with the Spirit's fire. Breathe upon us.
Open our ears, move our hearts.
Turn us from our inward gaze.
Teach us to contemplate creation and listen for each creature's voice.
Give us hearts to listen for good news to renew the Earth's favour.
Enlighten us with grace to follow Christ.
as we learn to walk lightly upon this holy ground.
Fill us with hope to quench fires of injustice
with you healing that sustains our common home.
Amen

Serve the Lord with Joy

First Reading: Wis 9:13-18

What man can know the intentions of God?
Who can divine the will of the Lord?
The reasonings of mortals are unsure
and our intentions unstable;
for a perishable body presses down the soul,
and this tent of clay weighs down the teeming mind.
It is hard enough for us to work out what is on earth,
laborious to know what lies within our reach;
who, then, can discover what is in the heavens?
As for your intention, who could have learnt it, had you not granted Wisdom and sent your holy spirit from above?
Thus have the paths of those on earth been straightened and men been taught what pleases you,
and saved, by Wisdom.

Second Reading: Phlm 9-10 12-17

This is Paul writing, an old man now and, what is more, still a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for a child of mine, whose father I became while wearing these chains: I mean Onesimus. I am sending him back to you, and with him – I could say – a part of my own self. I should have liked to keep him with me; he could have been a substitute for you, to help me while I am in the chains that the Good News has brought me. However, I did not want to do anything without your consent; it would have been forcing your act of kindness, which should be spontaneous. I know you have been deprived of Onesimus for a time, but it was only so that you could have him back for ever, not as a slave any more, but something much better than a slave, a dear brother; especially dear to me, but how much more to you, as a blood-brother as well as a brother in the Lord. So if all that we have in common means anything to you, welcome him as you would me.

Gospel: Lk 14:25-33

Great crowds accompanied Jesus on his way and he turned and spoke to them. 'If any man comes to me without hating his father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, yes and his own life too, he cannot be my disciple. Anyone who does not carry his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. 'And indeed, which of you here, intending to build a tower, would not first sit down and work out the cost to see if he had enough to complete it? Otherwise, if he laid the foundation and then found himself unable to finish the work, the onlookers would all start making fun of him and saying, "Here is a man who started to build and was unable to finish." Or again, what king marching to war against another king would not first sit down and consider whether with ten thousand men he could stand up to the other who advanced against him with twenty thousand? If not, then while the other king was still a long way off, he would send envoys to sue for peace. So in the same way, none of you can be my disciple unless he gives up all his possessions.'

All enquiries to Maureen by contacting the Parish Office on 9763 7302.

First gathering will be held on Wednesday 7th September at the Parish Reception Centre at 9.30am-11am.

National Child Protection Week takes place from the 4 - 10 September 2022

This is an annual event and this year's theme 'Every child, in every community, needs a fair go' aims to spread the message that we need to work together to make sure that every child grows up safe and supported.

A particular focus will be on the right of children and young people to grow up in environments that support them according to their needs.

When children and young people grow up safe, connected and supported in their families, communities and cultures, they thrive.

This weekend at Children's Liturgy there will be a special activity for the children to be involved in promoting Child Protection Week.
