THE TIMES CERTAINLY ARE 'A-CHANGIN'!

The impact of the Irish Catholic Church on Australia has been extraordinary. In the early years of Melbourne, the majority of priests were from Ireland and the contribution that some of the Irish Religious Orders – Presentation Sisters, Mercy Sisters, Brigidine Sisters, Charity Sisters, Christian Brothers, Patrician Brothers – have made to education has been amazing. But like ourselves, the Church in Ireland is not what it was. The following are excerpts from an article in the English Catholic Weekly, 'The Tablet' the article entitled Sunday Mass 'no longer guaranteed'

Lay people will soon be leading a range of services in the Diocese of Limerick, from prayers at funerals to the preparation of children for the sacraments, according to Bishop Brendan Leahy. Warning that "rapid changes" are necessary to deal with the decline of clergy in active ministry, the Bishop of Limerick appealed to parishes to look towards lay leadership. As a result of the decline in priest numbers, a number of pastoral units in Limerick will be losing a clergy member. It is clear at this stage, Bishop Leahy told them, we can no longer guarantee the celebration of a Mass in each church in the diocese each Sunday". These challenges were calling the diocese to envisage and work towards putting in place new forms of lay leadership in its parish communities. We will need lay people to lead prayers at funerals, at gravesides, to visit schools on behalf of the parish, to be involved in pastoral councils and baptismal teams, to help with the practical administration of parishes." In his letter, the Bishop of Limerick stressed that working closely together would be essential as the Church adapts. "We all need to work urgently to prepare for the new arrangements that are needed in the coming years. It is in working together, encouraging each other and facing challenges with peace of soul combined with realism and determination that we move forward," he said.

As Pope Francis keeps reminding us: "we are not living in an era of change, but a change of era." As a friend of mine often says – 'there is no point in getting ready for yesterday!'

Serve the Lord with Joy

First Reading: Hab 1:2-3 2:2-4

How long, Lord, am I to cry for help
while you will not listen;
to cry 'Oppression!' in your ear
and you will not save?
Why do you set injustice before me,
why do you look on where there is tyranny?
Outrage and violence, this is all I see,
all is contention, and discord flourishes.
Then the Lord answered and said,

'Write the vision down,
inscribe it on tablets
to be easily read,
since this vision is for its own time only:
eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive;
if it comes slowly, wait,
for come it will, without fail.
See how he flags, he whose soul is not at rights,
but the upright man will live by his faithfulness.'

Second Reading: 2 Tim 1:6-8 13-14

I am reminding you to fan into a flame the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner; but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God.

Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

Gospel: Lk 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.

'Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"? Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty."'
