Reconciliation by appointment (contact Fr Mark or Fr Samuel at Parish Office)

As we celebrate the 60th anniversary of Vatican II the following reflection from "Jesuit Resource" is worthy of our consideration.

"Convoked by Pope John XXIII to bring the Catholic Church "up to date" and continued by his successor Paul VI after John's death, this 21st Ecumenical (i.e. worldwide) Council (1962-1965) signalled the Catholic Church's growth from a church of cultural confinement (largely European) to a genuine world church. The council set its seal on the work of 20th century theologians that earlier had often been officially considered dangerous or erroneous. Thus, the biblical movement, the liturgical renewal, and the lay movement were incorporated into official Catholic doctrine and practice.

Here are several significant new perspectives coming from the council: celebration of liturgy (worship) in various vernacular languages rather than Latin, to facilitate understanding and lay participation; viewing the church as "the whole people of God" rather than just as clergy and viewing other Christian bodies (Protestant, Orthodox) as belonging to it; recognizing non-Christian religions as containing truth; honouring freedom of conscience as a basic human right; and finally including in its mission a reaching out to people in all their human hopes, needs, and sufferings as an essential part of preaching the gospel.

Of equal importance with these new perspectives is the style or genre in which they were delivered. The documents of earlier councils always had a negative tone; they listed errors to be corrected and condemned anyone who held them. The documents of Vatican II, in contrast, were written in a positive tone, in keeping with the "pastoral" approach that Pope John had called for in his initial remarks to the gathered bishops. These documents addressed not just Catholics but all people; and they urged ideals that many could embrace.

There were at times heated interventions from the floor and a good deal of maneuvering behind the scene. Yet in the end a huge majority of the bishops voted to approve each of the documents in turn. The conviction and determination of those in the tiny minority, however, did not go away with the closing of the council. Even before it closed, Paul VI had indicated that there would be no reform of the Roman Curia (the Vatican offices). And afterwards, because that tiny minority controlled the curia and the appointment of bishops worldwide, they were able (under John Paul II and Benedict XVI) to bring about a return to earlier, pre-Vatican II ways, in particular a centralization of church governance at the top and censorship of supposed "liberal" or "radical" theologians and organizations. But Pope Francis (2013-), with his emphasis on shared church governance, respect for the person and conscience, and the primacy of the pastoral in the church's mission, has re-affirmed the spirit and direction of the council."

Serve the Lord with Joy

First Reading: Ex 17:8-13

The Amalekites came and attacked Israel at Rephidim. Moses said to Joshua, 'Pick out men for yourself, and tomorrow morning march out to engage Amalek. I, meanwhile, will stand on the hilltop, the staff of God in my hand.' Joshua did as Moses told him and marched out to engage Amalek, while Moses and Aaron and Hur went up to the top of the hill. As long as Moses kept his arms raised, Israel had the advantage; when he let his arms fall, the advantage went to Amalek. But Moses' arms grew heavy, so they took a stone and put it under him and on this he sat, Aaron and Hur supporting his arms, one on one side, one on the other; and his arms remained firm till sunset. With the edge of the sword Joshua cut down Amalek and his people.

Second Reading: 2 Tm 3:14-4:2

You must keep to what you have been taught and know to be true; remember who your teachers were, and how, ever since you were a child, you have known the holy scriptures – from these you can learn the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and can profitably be used for teaching, for refuting error, for guiding people's lives and teaching them to be holy. This is how the man who is dedicated to God becomes fully equipped and ready for any good work.

Before God and before Christ Jesus who is to be judge of the living and the dead, I put this duty to you, in the name of his Appearing and of his kingdom: proclaim the message and, welcome or unwelcome, insist on it. Refute falsehood, correct error, call to obedience – but do all with patience and with the intention of teaching.

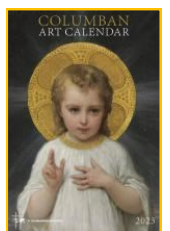

Gospel: Lk 18:1-8

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the need to pray continually and never lose heart. 'There was a judge in a certain town' he said 'who had neither fear of God nor respect for man. In the same town there was a widow who kept on coming to him and saying, "I want justice from you against my enemy!" For a long time he refused, but at last he said to himself, "Maybe I have neither fear of God nor respect for man, but since she keeps pestering me I must give this widow her just rights, or she will persist in coming and worry me to death."'

And the Lord said, 'You notice what the unjust judge has to say? Now will not God see justice done to his chosen who cry to him day and night even when he delays to help them? I promise you, he will see justice done to them, and done speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find any faith on earth?'

An invitation is extended to our current Readers and Ministers of Eucharist to a Training Session to take place in the Church on Saturday, 15th October at 10am-11am. We encourage all particularly Readers to attend as there will be some changes to our practices. Many thanks for your support and cooperation. Liturgy Team

Mass of Remembrance

In keeping with the tradition of the Catholic Church, November is the month we pray for our loved ones who have died. Fr Edward Hays, a spiritual writer, suggests that the most beautiful tribute we can give to a deceased loved one is a living memory that is nourished by prayer, gratitude, and ever-deepening affection.

Therefore, a Mass of Remembrance will be held on Wednesday 23rd November, and a special invitation is extended to those parishioners who have had a loved one die during the last 12 months, to attend and give thanks for their life.

If you would like the name of your loved one(s) prayed for at this Mass, please email Leon and Mary at the Liturgy Team (liturgy.stjudes@gmail.com) or ring Elisa on 9763-7302, to provide:

- Name of person(s) to be remembered
- Date of death
- Contact person, their postal address, phone number and email address, so that an invitation letter can be sent to you.

This Mass will be celebrated at St Jude's at 7.30pm on Wednesday 23rd November. All parishioners are welcome to attend this Mass.

Next week, as we celebrate World Mission Month, Catholic Mission will invite you to partner with Fr Habte and the Church in Ethiopia as they provide the community the opportunity to build brighter futures. Fr Habte has seen firsthand the benefits the current farm provided for his community in accessing nutritious milk and its by-products. Now, he believes that together, the Church and community can make a real difference for people seeking agricultural training and employment.

We hope you will join us in partnering with this life-changing program.

SAFEGUARDING ESSENTIALS TRAINING MODULE

The Professional Standards Unit of the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne (CAM) are pleased to announce the launch of the Safeguarding Essentials online training module for all volunteers. The purpose of this training is to provide our volunteers with:

- Foundational knowledge that will support them to undertake their role.
- A clear understanding of their duty of care and expectations with regards to safeguarding children, young people and adults from all forms of abuse and harm.

Completion of this module affirms your commitment and that of CAM to the safety and care of those most in need. On the completion of the online training participants will receive a certificate of completion. Could you please email a copy to the Parish Office. To access the online training module you will need to provide your Working with Children Check Identification Number & email address. To access the online training go to:

<https://safeguarding.melbournecatholic.org/>

For those volunteers who would like to join an online group session to be held at the Parish Reception Centre please register your interest on the sign up sheet in the Church foyer or phone the Parish Office. A date for this training has yet to be set but you will be advised accordingly.

Thank you for your continued support and cooperation.
