*The hand of God shall hold you,
the peace of God enfold you;
the love that dreamed and formed you,
still surrounds you here today;
the light of God beside you, above,
beneath, inside you;
the light that shines to guide you home
to the loving hand of God.*

Serve the Lord with Joy

First Reading: Nehemiah 8:2-6 8-10

Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, consisting of men, women, and children old enough to understand. This was the first day of the seventh month. On the square before the Water Gate, in the presence of the men and women, and children old enough to understand, he read from the book from early morning till noon; all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden dais erected for the purpose. In full view of all the people – since he stood higher than all the people – Ezra opened the book; and when he opened it all the people stood up. Then Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people raised their hands and answered Amen! Amen!; then they bowed down and, face to the ground, prostrated themselves before the Lord. And Ezra read from the Law of God, translating and giving the sense, so that the people understood what was read.

Then Nehemiah – His Excellency – and Ezra, priest and scribe (and the Levites who were instructing the people) said to all the people, ‘This day is sacred to the Lord your God. Do not be mournful, do not weep’. For the people were all in tears as they listened to the words of the Law.

He then said, ‘Go, eat the fat, drink the sweet wine, and send a portion to the man who has nothing prepared ready. For this day is sacred to our Lord. Do not be sad: the joy of the Lord is your stronghold.’

Second Reading—1 Corinthians 12:12-14 27

Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens, and one Spirit was given to us all to drink.

Nor is the body to be identified with any one of its many parts. Now you together are Christ’s body; but each of you is a different part of it.

Gospel—Luke 1:1-4 4:14-21

Seeing that many others have undertaken to draw up accounts of the events that have taken place among us, exactly as these were handed down to us by those who from the outset were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word, I in my turn, after carefully going over the whole story from the beginning, have decided to write an ordered account for you, Theophilus, so that your Excellency may learn how well founded the teaching is that you have received.

Jesus, with the power of the Spirit in him, returned to Galilee; and his reputation spread throughout the countryside. He taught in their synagogues and everyone praised him.

He came to Nazara, where he had been brought up, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day as he usually did. He stood up to read, and they handed him the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. Unrolling the scroll he found the place where it is written:

The spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for he has anointed me.
He has sent me to bring the good news to the poor,
to proclaim liberty to captives
and to the blind new sight,
to set the downtrodden free,
to proclaim the Lord’s year of favour.

He then rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the assistant and sat down. And all eyes in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to speak to them, ‘This text is being fulfilled today even as you listen.’

Parish Mission Statement

*In a spirit of Pastoral Outreach of St Jude’s Parish, we, the people of the parish, are called to “Serve the Lord with Joy”.
We respect diversity and welcome all who choose to belong to our community. By sharing our gifts and resources generously, we support and encourage all people who come our way.
Let our voices be heard in a spirit of openness that fosters ongoing communication across our Parish.*

Help Required – Many Hands Make Light Work

Wednesday

After the 10.00am Mass on Australia Day (Wednesday), help is required to set up both the Main Hall and the Reception Room in preparation for the light refreshments to be served after Fr Mackay's Funeral Mass on Thursday. All help is greatly appreciated, even if it is only for a short while.

Thursday

Light refreshments will be served after Fr Mackay's funeral mass. Due to Covid restrictions, sandwiches, drinks etc will have to be served to the guests and a fairly large crowd is expected. A number of volunteers are required to ensure this function runs smoothly. We estimate that help will be needed between 11.30am and 3.00pm. To advise of your willingness to help please contact either Ann Doyle (0402 904 678) or Robyn Pinches (0407 324 117) or via email to: pastoral.stjudes@gmail.com by Monday evening (24th).

St Jude's is a wonderful parish and being involved is a great way to get to know people. We look forward to your involvement and help.

Many thanks

Robyn and Ann

Cuppa and a Chat

We look forward to re-commencing our monthly Cuppa and a Chat mornings on February 23rd. There won't be one in January as the date clashes with Australia Day. We hope one of your new year's resolutions is to come along each month and enjoy a friendly get together. For information please contact Ann Doyle (0402 904 678) or Mary King (0438 644 425).

Name Badges—Together we are St Jude's

Parishioners are encouraged to wear their name badge to Mass or to a parish function. If you would like to arrange a name badge please record your details on the form situated on the table in the Church foyer. Name Badges will be ready for collection the following weekend.
