Moments of death and resurrection

As we go through life we all experience little deaths.

*We get a foretaste of death when we live
in bitterness, loneliness, sadness and despair.*

*In times like these the world closes in on us,
and we seem to have one foot in the grave.*

But we also experience little resurrections.

*When we know love, acceptance, and forgiveness;
when we open our hearts to others and to life,
the world opens up and we emerge from the tomb.*

*Lord, may the splendor of your resurrection
scatter the shadows of death,
and enable us to walk in radiant hope towards the kingdom where there are no more shattered hopes or broken dreams.*

1st Reading—Acts of the Apostles

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses—we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead—and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

2nd Reading—Colossians 3:1-4

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed—and he is your life—you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

Gospel— John 20: 1-9

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the line cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

Happy Easter from all at Caritas Australia!

Thank you for supporting us this year as we demonstrate how love and compassion for our global community can transform lives. You have responded to St. Oscar Romero's invitation to "Be More", putting your compassion into action to support some of the world's most vulnerable communities. By aspiring to be more, you have helped change lives.

Thank you for supporting Caritas Australia's Project Compassion 2021 Lenten Appeal.

If you haven't already returned your Project Compassion Box/envelopes could you please return them to the Parish Office at your earliest convenience. Thank you

Easter Liturgies

Thank you to all who participated in the Easter Liturgies and helped make them meaningful for our parish community and visitors.

Special thanks to our Liturgy Team, Choir and Altar decorators and all who volunteered for the various roles at each of the Easter ceremonies during the Easter Triduum.

Important – Registering for Masses

A reminder that the parish must still meet the government’s contact tracing requirements for religious gathering. Registration is required for each Mass attended. You can assist us greatly by pre-registering for the weekend Mass you wish to attend using one of the methods below:

Directly at trybooking (<https://www.trybooking.com/BNTBP> or the link on the Parish website this is the preferred method, or

Emailing your booking request to massrequest.stjudes@gmail.com, or Calling the Parish Office (9763 7302) between 9:00 am and 4:00 pm Tuesday through to Friday. Let Elisa or Preethi know if you want to be pre-registered every week.

COMMUNION TO THE SICK

I would be grateful if those parishioners who take communion to the sick could let me know who they are as I’d like to arrange a brief meeting shortly after Easter.
Thank you, Fr Mark.
