THANK YOU.....AND ON WE GO

Since the news of Fr Noel Mackay's death first started to spread just on two weeks ago now so much has happened in the life of our parish. It's always difficult to name people because when you do you invariably leave some out but as the current parish priest I would just simply like to say thank you to so many who have given so generously over these past two weeks, be that being involved in our liturgies on Wednesday night and then the Funeral Mass on Thursday, those who helped with sandwich making, serving in the Hall, assisting with car parking, co-ordinating all that happened in the Church, décor and floral arrangements, dealing with a barrage of calls into the Parish Office. And to those many folk who simply asked...."is there anything I can do?" I say a particular thank you.

It's a bit ironic then I guess that just as we farewell Fr Noel, who in a sense began the life of St Simon's Rowville which was 'cut off' from St Jude's I go to St Simon's this weekend to join in the farewell of Fr Kevin Dillon and a 'handing over' of St Simon's to me as Parish Priest.

So as I say, on we go. And parish life must, if it is to be both honest and productive, always be looking forward. At times and understandably, we might long for the 'good old days' as they say, but as a very wise person said to me many years ago now, "there is no point in getting for yesterday."

So, on we go indeed.

Fr Mark

Serve the Lord with Joy

First Reading: Jeremiah 1:4-5 17-19

In the days of Josiah, the word of the Lord was addressed to me, saying,

'Before I formed you in the womb I knew you;
before you came to birth I consecrated you;
I have appointed you as prophet to the nations.
So now brace yourself for action.
Stand up and tell them
all I command you.
Do not be dismayed at their presence,
or in their presence I will make you dismayed.
I, for my part, today will make you
into a fortified city,
a pillar of iron,
and a wall of bronze
to confront all this land:
the kings of Judah, its princes,
its priests and the country people.
They will fight against you
but shall not overcome you,
for I am with you to deliver you – it is the Lord who speaks.'

Second Reading—1 Corinthians 13:4-13

Love is always patient and kind; it is never jealous; love is never boastful or conceited; it is never rude or selfish; it does not take offence, and is not resentful. Love takes no pleasure in other people's sins but delights in the truth; it is always ready to excuse, to trust, to hope, and to endure whatever comes.

Love does not come to an end. But if there are gifts of prophecy, the time will come when they must fail; or the gift of languages, it will not continue for ever; and knowledge – for this, too, the time will come when it must fail. For our knowledge is imperfect and our prophesying is imperfect; but once perfection comes, all imperfect things will disappear. When I was a child, I used to talk like a child, and think like a child, and argue like a child, but now I am a man, all childish ways are put behind me. Now we are seeing a dim reflection in a mirror; but then we shall be seeing face to face. The knowledge that I have now is imperfect; but then I shall know as fully as I am known.

In short, there are three things that last: faith, hope and love; and the greatest of these is love.

Gospel—Luke 4:21-30

Jesus began to speak in the synagogue, 'This text is being fulfilled today even as you listen.' And he won the approval of all, and they were astonished by the gracious words that came from his lips.

They said, 'This is Joseph's son, surely?' But he replied, 'No doubt you will quote me the saying, "Physician, heal yourself" and tell me, "We have heard all that happened in Capernaum, do the same here in your own countryside."' And he went on, 'I tell you solemnly, no prophet is ever accepted in his own country.

'There were many widows in Israel, I can assure you, in Elijah's day, when heaven remained shut for three years and six months and a great famine raged throughout the land, but Elijah was not sent to any one of these: he was sent to a widow at Zarephath, a Sidonian town. And in the prophet Elisha's time there were many lepers in Israel, but none of these was cured, except the Syrian, Naaman.'

When they heard this everyone in the synagogue was enraged. They sprang to their feet and hustled him out of the town; and they took him up to the brow of the hill their town was built on, intending to throw him down the cliff, but he slipped through the crowd and walked away.

To the parents and families of our St Jude's parish

Due to the continuing high number of COVID cases in our community at the moment, we have agreed to delay the resumption of Children's Liturgy, at least until all our children have been fully vaccinated.

We thank you for your continued patience and support.

"Many hands did make light work"

Thank you to all our wonderful parishioners who assisted us in setting up the hall on Wednesday morning and those who helped with the function after Fr Mackay's Requiem Mass. Without you, we could not have done it. We hope we didn't work you too hard and we can look forward to your help again!!

It was lovely to see so many former and current parishioners having a good old 'catch up'. We're sure Fr Mackay would have had a big smile on his face as he certainly enjoyed any occasion that the St Jude's community had a get-together.

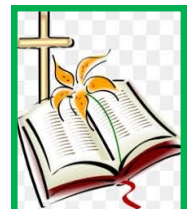

Again, thank you all. Ann Doyle & Robyn Pinches Parish Pastoral Council
