

St. Jude the Apostle Parish

49 George St, Scoresby

"In a spirit of Pastoral outreach, we, the people of the Parish, are called to serve with joy."

Corpus Christi—Year B 2nd June 2024

Mark 14:12-16 can be seen as a testament to love.

Jesus's detailed preparation for the Passover meal demonstrates His deep love and care for His disciples. Knowing the significance of the coming events, He ensures that they will share a final meal together. This act of planning underscores His desire to be with them, teaching them, and preparing them for what is to come. It is an expression of His unwavering love and commitment to their well-being.

The disciples' willingness to follow Jesus' instructions without hesitation reflects their love and trust in Him. In carrying out these seemingly mundane tasks, they demonstrate that love is often shown through simple, faithful actions.

The preparation for the Passover is not just about logistics; it is an act of love and service. By ensuring everything is ready for this important meal, the disciples are participating in Jesus' mission and showing their love for Him and each other. This highlights how love often involves behind-the-scenes work, preparing and serving others with care and devotion.

The Passover meal itself is a profound symbol of Jesus' impending sacrifice. His actions are driven by love for humanity, as He prepares to lay down His life for the salvation of others. This sacrificial love is at the heart of the Christian faith, reminding us of the depth and cost of true love.

This passage invites us to reflect on how we can express love in our own lives. It challenges us to prepare, serve, and obey out of love for God and others. It encourages a love that is proactive, detailed, and sacrificial, following the example set by Jesus and His disciples.

*Heavenly Father, help us to trust and obey Your guidance, showing love through our actions and preparations. Fill our hearts with a spirit of service and hospitality, that we may reflect Your love to others in all we do. In Jesus' name we pray.
Amen*

First Reading: Exodus 24:3-8

Moses went and told the people all the commands of the Lord and all the ordinances. In answer, all the people said with one voice, 'We will observe all the commands that the Lord has decreed.' Moses put all the commands of the Lord into writing, and early next morning he built an altar at the foot of the mountain, with twelve standing-stones for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then he directed certain young Israelites to offer holocausts and to immolate bullocks to the Lord as communion sacrifices. Half of the blood Moses took up and put into basins, the other half he cast on the altar. And taking the Book of the Covenant he read it to the listening people, and they said, 'We will observe all that the Lord has decreed; we will obey.' Then Moses took the blood and cast it towards the people. 'This' he said 'is the blood of the Covenant that the Lord has made with you, containing all these rules.'

Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?' So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, "The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the Passover with my disciples?" He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover.

And as they were eating he took some bread, and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it,' he said 'this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.'

After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15

Now Christ has come, as the high priest of all the blessings which were to come. He has passed through the greater, the more perfect tent, which is better than one made by men's hands because it is not of this created order; and he has entered the sanctuary once and for all, taking with him not the blood of goats and bull calves, but his own blood, having won an eternal redemption for us. The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer are sprinkled on those who have incurred defilement and they restore the holiness of their outward lives; how much more effectively the blood of Christ, who offered himself as the perfect sacrifice to God through the eternal Spirit, can purify our inner self from dead actions so that we do our service to the living God.

He brings a new covenant, as the mediator, only so that the people who were called to an eternal inheritance may actually receive what was promised: his death took place to cancel the sins that infringed the earlier covenant.

VISIT TO THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Christ's heart is always waiting for us to return. All we need to do is to become small and enter there through humility. And if we ever find it hard to begin on our way back to Him, we can rely on Mary's help. - Opus Dei

We ask for the peace and grace of Eternal Life for those who have recently died and those whose memories are sacred to us at this time especially: Basil Felmingham, Raffaella Morganella, George Lee, Hellen Koevoets, Keith Westaway, Rita Goudie, Petronella Allard, Marjorie Lacy, Anne Kelly, Bernie Pyke, Melvielle Hodges, Gennaro Testa, Sigi Maletzki, Stan Murphy, Vivian Genato, Ivy Millicent Jenkins, Allan Saxon.
