Receive the Holy Spirit

In the other Gospels there is a scene within the ministry of Jesus when he sends the disciples out to preach, heal and cast out demons. In this Johannine Gospel the missioning of disciples does not occur until after the Resurrection. Prior to the crucifixion Jesus is the only one on mission from his Father, but now as he returns to the Father that mission is to continue through his disciples. Just as Jesus' mission began with the coming of the Spirit to dwell with him, so also the mission of the disciples begins as Jesus breathes on them, the gift of the Spirit.

Jesus' mission had been to reveal God's love for the world and to overcome the power of evil that held people back from believing and accepting this great gift of love. The disciples are similarly empowered. They are given authority from Jesus to announce the forgiveness of sin. No longer are people to be held back from God by fear and guilt.

In this Gospel the evangelist shows this power already operating in the extraordinary change that happens to the disciples. They are locked in on themselves, afraid, possibly reliving their failures over recent days. Then suddenly the Risen One is present. All fear and failure is immediately banished and replaced by joy and peace. May the power of God's Spirit inflame our hearts with the Easter gifts of peace and joy.

Come Bird of Paradise, hover anew over this time, this place.

*Spread your brooding wings afar
to gather all the lost.*

Blaze with your incandescent light in hearts trapped by fear.

*Dispel the clouds of despair
And breathe*

Breathe into our dried up hopes your cosmic breath of life.

*Come gracious breath of Love,
Play your subtle melodies in our heart.*

Attune our ears to your vibrant stirrings to catch your rhythm and harmony pulsing in our lives.

Draw us from our solitary notes into the symphony of your Triune life.

Speak in tongues that we may hear the Word reborn.

And sing -

Sing through every fibre of our being.

Abba, Father.

Serve the Lord with Joy

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

Second Reading: 1 Cor 12:3-7 12-13

No one can say, 'Jesus is Lord' unless he is under the influence of the Holy Spirit.

There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens, and one Spirit was given to us all to drink.

Gospel Jn 20:19-23

In the evening of the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you', and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.'

'As the Father sent me,
so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said:

'Receive the Holy Spirit.
For those whose sins you forgive,
they are forgiven: for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

FLOWER ROSTER

The Parish is organising a 'Flower Roster' and if you have a garden with flowers we would welcome you to bring in any cut flowers from your garden to add to the floral displays for the weekend Masses. If this is something you would like to do could the flowers be brought to the Parish Office on the Friday between 9am and 2pm. This will help the ladies on the Flower Roster to work out if they need to purchase extra flowers for the weekend. If anyone would like to join the 'Flower Roster' please contact the Parish Office for more information.

Looking for volunteers to help assist with the St Jude's Altar Society requiring a commitment on a monthly basis. Some of the duties include washing of chalice, ciborium and communion plates and general upkeep in preparation of weekend masses. Volunteers are required to have a current Working with Children Check and appropriate training will be provided. For further details please contact the Parish Office on 9763 7302.

The Knitting and Crochet Group will gather on Wednesday 7 June from 9.30am-11am in the Church Foyer (please note change of venue)
