Year A

TWELTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The demands of discipleship can be very difficult. The strength that is needed to continue on the chosen path despite its hardships can come only from God. We live in a world that desperately needs to hear the call to conversion, but it is a world that is subject to the death that entered it through the sin of Adam. Those who answer the call of God may have to face the hostility of this world, because their values and their commitment to righteousness threaten its moorings. To commit oneself to the reign of God is to challenge the reign of the world, and this can make one very unpopular. In the midst of this suffering we can find strength in the promises of God, and we believe that God is faithful to these promises.

ant with hope. Paul assures us that the gracious gift that God offers us is far greater than the transgressions brought on by sin. This gracious gift is Jesus Christ himself. The gift exceeds anything for which we might have hoped. He is the comfort that will carry us through our disappointments. He is the strength that will enable us to endure the misunderstanding and hardship that come with discipleship. We are called to acknowledge him before the world, and we are promised that if we do, he will acknowledge us before God. There is light even in the midst of darkness. There is hope even in the midst of suffering.

Reflection

We pray that all those who suffer may find their way in life, allowing themselves to be touched by the Heart of Jesus.

Amen.

'Faith necessarily takes you out, it leads you to give it, because essentially faith must be transmitted. It is not something quiet.'

Pope Francis, 2020

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

SACRAMENTS—CONFIRMATION & FIRST HOLY EUCHARIST 2020

Children who don't attend the parish primary school are invited to attend the parish Sacramental Program in 2020. Due to covid restrictions our program will be run at home with approx. 2 information meetings with our school religious coordinator, Ms Cathy Ferrari. The child will receive a booklet with a selection of lessons to complete with the guidance of a parent/guardian. Sacrament of First Eucharist (usually year 4) will be 20th and 22nd October and Confirmation (usually year 6) 4th and 6th August (this may change depending of covid restrictions). Please contact the parish office on 9593 2122 or BrightonEast@cam.org.au to enrol.

Please contact Fr Ian Ranson or Carmel to have a chat if you are interested.
