PENSIERO DOMENICALE

Nel vangelo di oggi Cristo si presenta come il buon pastore. Questa affermazione non è una semplice espressione verbale, e neppure una similitudine, ma definisce esattamente lo stesso essere di Gesù. La sua presenza in mezzo a noi non è quella di un capo geloso della sua autorità, e neppure quella di un agitatore di folle, avido di acclamazioni, ma quella di un pastore che vive solo per il suo gregge, unicamente preoccupato di procurargli nutrimento e sicurezza.

Procuriamo di conoscere meglio il Cristo, buon pastore. Senza dubbio aumenterà in noi il desiderio di essere una delle sue pecore docili e riconoscenti.

Please remember in your prayers/Gentilmente ricordate nelle vostre preghiere:

OUR SICK / NOSTRI MALATI

Our family members and friends and our parishioners.

WE REMEMBER / RICORDIAMO

Nicola Tucci, Francesca Lo Tauro.

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY - WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Today is the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Pope Francis tells us: There can be no greater joy than to risk one's life for the Lord! I would like to say this especially to you, the young. Do not be deaf to the Lord's call. If he calls you to follow this path, do not pull your oars into the boat, but trust him. Let us pray for the young people in our community, and in our families and circle of friends. May our prayers help them to be open to the Lord's call to consecrated life or priesthood.

GIFTS TO SHARE

As the face of the Lord shines on you, how do you reflect this to others in your life, at home, at work, at school or in the community? Does your face mirror the peace and joy of knowing Jesus? Remember that the gift you have is yours to share. At this time each year, we recall the great gift that the ANZACs gave, and we give thanks. Let us also remember our current servicemen and women, serving at home and overseas as we enjoy the freedom they work to protect. Consider how you can share your gift and ask the Lord for the courage to trust him as you respond to His invitation.

This Thursday we remember the ANZACs bravery and sacrifice, many of them never returning home from the war.

What we believe

Catholics are a diverse group of people coming from all different walks of life. Our own Melbourne Catholic community is no different. Despite our own unique attributes, stories and histories, we are united by our faith. While there are many aspects to our faith and worship, we hold the following core beliefs:

- There is one God, whose divine nature is love.
- We know God as a perfectly loving and unified community (or 'communion') of three Divine Persons - Father, Son and Holy Spirit - also known as the Trinity.
- God desires to extend this communion to us and yearns to be in relationship with us.
- All human beings are created in God's image and we are uniquely loved by him.
- Jesus is the Son. He became a human person to reveal God's love and bring us to wholeness and fullness of life through his life, death and resurrection (rising from the dead).
- The Holy Spirit is likened to the breath of God. The Spirit, given to us in baptism, enlivens, animates and dwells in our hearts.

The Apostles' Creed, an ancient statement of belief, encapsulates the faith of Catholic people.

The Catholic Church makes visible God's infinite love and care for each one of us through the recognition and celebration of seven milestones, known as sacraments. These rituals use words and symbols to engage our hearts, minds and senses, and help us recognise, name and invite God's presence and participation in our lives.

Through baptism, we are adopted and become children of God and members of the 'Communion of Saints', comprising all the baptised who have gone before us and those here on earth now.

Catholics are called to live their lives in a way that makes visible their commitment to the faith they profess and celebrate. Catholics grow in their love and relationship with God through private and communal prayer (dialogue with God) and worship.
