PENSIERO DOMENICALE

Per ben nove volte si legge nel vangelo come Gesu' dice ai suoi discepoli:
"Non abbiate paura." Come mai ha voluto ripetere l'esortazione così spesso?

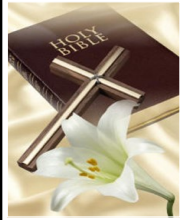

Ha ancora tanta importanza per ognuno di noi al giorno d'oggi essere rafforzati contro la paura?

Secondo me, dobbiamo sinceramente ammettere che anche noi oggi abbiamo bisogno di questo incoraggiamento:" Non abbiate paura!"

2023 Propagation of the Faith Appeal - This weekend

This week Catholic Mission will offer the opportunity to be part of a life-changing program which aims to address gaps in medical care, and provide families with essential health care and knowledge, equipping them with the confidence to act and autonomy over their health and well-being.

The Maria Auxiliadora Clinic is a vital project for the Salesian Sisters and the Church in Veniale. Since its establishment, the clinic has provided life-saving treatment for families in need, like Petrolina's, whose daughter Vitoria was found to have tuberculosis. But, with an increase in the demand for treatment, the Sisters' resources can only carry them so far.

Please give generously today to help continue this life-giving program by using the appeal envelope or go online at catholicmission.org.au/timor. Your gift will also help many other similar Church-run mission programs around the world.

THE LOVE THAT MOVES THE SUN AND STARS

The mystery of the universe is love. Creation is of the order of love. God's love is the fundamental moving force in all created things. 'For you love all things that exist, for you would not have made anything if you had hated it.' (Wis 11:24) Every creature is thus the object of the Father's tenderness, who give it its place in the world. Even the fleeting life of the least of beings is the object of his love, and in its few seconds of existence God enfolds it with affection. Dante Alighieri spoke of 'the love that moves the suns and the stars' (L.S. 77)

"Isn't this breathtakingly attractive language," comments Daniel O'Leary. "How can we read and believe it, and yet remain the same? It is too beautiful, too deep, too tender to take in all at once. What does Pope Francis mean by 'the order of love?' What he means is extraordinary! Love is the vital, connecting, sustaining, empowering force of all being and all creatures and all things, for every second of their existence - whether the mayfly during its 30 minutes with us or the dinosaur during its 200 years of living. Try to remember this every time you look around you: every time you use your senses; especially when times are hard, and you do not actually feel much love where you happen to be. Try also to explain this statement - that energy itself is the movement of love. Become more conscious of this revelation everywhere, even in and through what we call death itself, including the fleeting lives of stillborn babies, the tragic and abrupt ending of those who take their own lives..."

In conclusion, O'Leary quotes American writer and naturalist Wendell Berry who believes that 'the world was created and approved by love, that it subsists, coheres, and endures by love, and that in so far as it is redeemable, it can be redeemed only by love.' "Love is the essential energy of the entire universe from orbiting protons and neutrons to the orbiting of planets and stars."
