RICH IN GOD'S SIGHT

Someone wants Jesus to deal with a financial matter and to intervene into his domestic problem with his brother. Jesus offered his listeners an opportunity to think about their values, plans and how they looked at life.

He opens his parable: "There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest." Who wouldn't want to be in that man's shoes? So much security! Well-being! Picture his ample table all covered with gourmet foods with distinguished table guests. A report comes in — the best news — too much harvest, and too little barn space. Who wouldn't want his "problem?" Such a problem! The only "problem" would be how to spend it.

Just when the man is lulled into comfortable thoughts and is making plans and projects — "Surprise!" God makes an appearance and passes a verdict on the man's whole life, "You fool, this night your life shall be demanded of you and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?"

What caused the man's downfall? One of his problems was that there was no one else in his world; he was a person talking to himself. Did he have a wife? What would she have to say? Were there children? There was no human community in his considerations. God calls him a fool — the man's sole and chief advisor was himself, a "fool."

The man was deluded by his possessions. He thought they guaranteed his present and future happiness. He called his possessions "good things." Others who have less, but are without the man's "good things," may be very rich indeed: as the parable puts it, in "what matters to God." That could be our meditation this day: what matters to God? And what am I doing about it? What would it mean to be "rich in God's sight?"

WELCOME OUR NEW ORGANIST FOR 11AM MASS

We have appointed Bryan Barwood to be organist for 11am Mass. He has got broad experience in providing accompaniment on the organ in our parish for over 5 years. Since 2014, he has been responsible for selection, coaching and scheduling cantors, drawn from the student and novice friars, to sing at the 11am Sunday Mass, Christmas and Easter liturgies.

Last two months he has been acting as Organist and Music Coordinator for the 11 am Sunday Mass.

Thanks for his generous service, and please join me in welcoming Bryan as organist for 11am Mass.

Fr Peter Toan Nguyen, OP, PP

Rides, food and live music will help to make this a joyful celebration for the whole family! IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CHURCH This year, Immaculate Conception Church, Hawthorn is celebrating 150 years of serving the community as the blessing and opening mass of the church standing on the corner of Glenferrie and Burwood Roads was held in 1869. Three memorable events are organised to celebrate this milestone. The first of these will be a lecture to be given by eminent historian Dr Joan Barclay Lloyd – '150 years of bluestone and stained glass at the Immaculate Conception Church Hawthorn: faith, family, and fine art' in which she will unravel the stories behind many of the magnificent windows dating from 1871 and entwine with the history of the neo-Gothic bluestone church. Enjoy a musical introduction and be dazzled by the beautiful windows whilst learning about a piece of local history.
