THE GREAT COMMANDMENT OF LOVE

Jesus was often questioned and challenged concerning His interpretation of Scripture. Who is better to know the word than the Word Himself? A scribe came up to Jesus and asked: "Which is the first of all commandments?"

There were hundreds of laws forming the basis for the Jew's beliefs and religious practices. There were so many laws that they found it impossible to keep them all in daily life. They often discussed which were the most important, which must be absolutely obeyed, and which could be tolerated undone.

Jesus takes all the law and sums it up in these two great truths. He teaches that love is the greatest commandment of all. First of all, Jesus shows fidelity to their faith tradition by quoting Deuteronomy: "You shall love the Lord your God...." It was part of the daily prayer of devout Jews. But he connects this teaching with the law that commands love of neighbour.

Jesus made the two laws parallel to each other. People could not help but realize his meaning: the two were equal in importance. Would our instinct be to put love of God in first place? After all, it's God! Every other religious observance would be important, but on a lower level. But Jesus teaches we must treat the two laws as equal in importance.

The love Jesus describes asks everything of us. The first part of the teaching requires, "with All your heart, with All your soul, with All your mind, and with All your strength." This is the biblical way of summarizing the whole person. It leaves no wiggle room, and will not allow watering down. Loving God and loving neighbour is a way of giving the full gift of ourselves in service to God. This is not an option; we are commanded to love. There is no greater commandment.

The scribe realized that real love pleased God more than sacrifices and offerings. There is no better way to please God than to love Him and others. Simply put, without love we do not please God!

Fr Peter Toan Nguyen OP, PP

SAVE THE DATE The Justice and Peace group will hold a cake stall on 2nd December and are hoping once again for your generous support. Happy news received a few months ago from Fr Joe who set up the medical center in Peru, which we usually supported with this cake stall, informed us that the local government has taken over the funding of the center. So we have decided that this time we will support ACRATH. Sister Carole McDonald RSM, who was our guest speaker on Social Justice Sunday told us of the important work this group does. They have just lost their funding from the Australian government. Let us live the Gospel by supporting them in their work against human trafficking. "No one has the right to treat you as her or his slave" - Article 4 UN Declaration of Human Rights. Learn more at www.acrath.org.au BAKERS AND BUYERS NEEDED!

ST VINCENT DE PAUL wishes to thank the Parishioners for your ongoing support throughout the years. This year we are supporting people in South Melbourne as well as in the Camberwell East area. Nearly all of those we assist are struggling on pensions. We have single people, and couples, as well as families that comprise single mums with up to 8 children. This Christmas we are seeking gifts for children from babies to children up to 18 years. We are also seeking financial assistance, if possible, as well as non perishable food to put in hampers. If you are able to assist please leave gifts or food in the baskets (or beside them) at the entrances to the Church. Financial donations can be left at the Parish Office. Many thanks. John Dowling
