WHO ARE MY MOTHER AND BROTHERS?

Before we came to the world, we have to spend nine months in our mother's womb. And when we are born, we are born in a family and in a community. We always have someone with us. We have to stay with our family for many years before becoming independent adults. We are created not to be alone, but always to be with others. We are people in relationships with family, friends, neighbours and co-workers.

Why did Jesus raise the question "Who are my mother and brothers?" when they came to see him? That question does not mean that he lost his love and respect for his mother and relatives. Jesus did take any opportunities to teach people a spiritual lesson and truth about the kingdom of God. Taking occasion when many people gathered to hear Jesus he introduced another higher reality of relationships, namely our relationship with God and with those who belong to God.

People often heard the good news Jesus preached, and they would also see the good news take shape in his preaching.

BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST

He did not come to teach arcane or abstract religious matters. Instead, he announced God's presence here and now and invited them to turn to him and to God whom he wanted to usher into their lives, and ours as well.

What response shall we make to Jesus as he enters our lives anew today and invites us to open our arms and minds to welcome other people as our relatives? If we are to believe in him, we must not only change our ways of acting, but also how we think. Our actions must not be based on our own criteria or principles influenced by our world. Instead, since we are members of God's kingdom, God's ways revealed through Jesus, must become our ways.

Jesus, the preacher, announces a call and invites us to respond by a new way of thinking and acting. By saying "Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother", He doesn't spell out in detail to his first followers, or us, what he expects of them. He doesn't hand them a rule book explaining how they are to behave. Instead, he comes announcing a new time and invites them to follow and trust him. We don't have a roadmap into the future, but we follow Jesus who leads us there. With Christ, now is always a time of fulfillment. He is our Way, our Truth and our Life.

CATHOLIC MISSION CHURCH APPEAL

'How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news... 'Isaiah 52:7

In Hakha, a remote town in the mountainous north of Myanmar, St John's School is educating local children with a child-centred methodology. Three of the teachers at St John's have been trained through the Pyinya Sanyae Institute of Education (PSIE) in Yangon, and have been posted to this school to help local children learn in a modern way that maximises their potential. Your support through Catholic Mission can enable PSIE to continue training teachers and help improve education across the country. You can also help St John's School add grades to ensure continuity of education, and become economically sustainable. You will have an opportunity to become an integral part of this inspiring work by joining as a monthly giving partner. This regular contribution will directly support education in Myanmar.
