JESUS AS FULFILMENT OF THE LAW

In today's gospel, Jesus wants to bring us back to the basic of our faith: love of God and love of neighbour. Jesus says he is not contradicting the Jewish scriptures and the Ten Commandments, which give a framework of discipline and order. However, he is opposed to the legalistic type of religion the Scribes and Pharisees have built upon them, full of petty rules which have little to do with God's Law. "If your virtue goes no deeper than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven," he warns.

The mission of Jesus is to fulfill the law as he says, "I have come not to abolish them, but to complete them." Completing or fulfilling the law is an issue of right and just relationship. The righteousness of the official teachers of the Law, the scribes and Pharisees, their manner of relating to others and their notions of justice, are judged to be quite inadequate for those who are part of God's reign, the kingdom of heaven.

Jesus says that the Pharisees have so defined the Law in their own terms that they have missed the point. And so, he begins to expound the Law as it pertains to six subjects: murder, adultery, divorce, oath-taking, retaliation, and love for one's enemies. Instead of a list of God's commandments, Jesus looks to the spirit of the Law. The presence of God's life within us is the real reason the Law commands us not to kill others, and not to lie about them or steal from them. In other words, we are called to love like God loves. It is the challenge presented in the Beatitudes of the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus himself lived up to this ideal. His life of love and compassion is the kind of life we are called to live.

THANK YOU, MARTIN CHATFIELD

Martin Chatfield completes his service this month as St Dominic's representative to the Canterbury Council of Churches, which exists to promote awareness in life and mission of all Christ's people, seeking to make unity more apparent than our divisions; to initiate and give encouragement to local ecumenical projects. He has taken the position since 2005 from Robert Layton.

It's really a long and faithful service in Ecumenical ministry.

Thank you, Martin! You are one of the reasons behind our successful unity. God bless.

Deadline for Bulletin: 10.00am Thursday

WONDERING WHAT YOU CAN DO THIS LENT?

Pope Francis said, "To grow in charity and truth, we need to pause, to accept and to listen to one another." Now that's not a bad idea for Lent. We can do that by joining one of the Parish Lenten groups which meet weekly in Lent to ponder the Scripture readings.

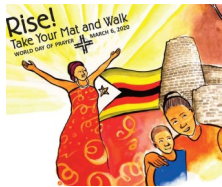

There will be 2 groups: on Monday morning and Wednesday evening.

- ◆ 10.30am Mondays – from 24th February – Sr Margaret Mary Brown
- ◆ 7.30pm Wednesdays – from 26th February – Br Sebastian Condon

Additional groups will be formed according to the number of applicants – the ideal size of a group of this nature is 6-8 people.

If you'd like to join a group please write your name and contact number down on the clipboards available at the back of the Church or just contact the Parish Office 9912 6870 ext 310 and help and information are available.

APPEAL FOR THE BRIGIDINE ASYLUM SEEKER PROJECT

For the last 6 years the Welcoming the Stranger committee at St Dominics has worked with and relied on Sister Brigid at the Brigidine Asylum Seeker Project (BASP) for her advice and inspiration.

We are again holding a special collection for food and other items at all the Masses next weekend (Feb 22/23) to be given to the BASP. This is one way we at St Dominic's can help vulnerable people who are refugees or seeking asylum in Australia. If you would like to contribute to this collection you can pick up a paper bag with a list of possible items attached, at the doors as you leave Mass today or from the parish office. Place your donated items in the bag and return at Mass next weekend or at the parish office. All collected items will be taken BASP in Port Melbourne in the week beginning March 2. Thanking you in anticipation. Peter Charles (Chair of the Welcoming the Stranger committee)
