“I HAVE COME TO BRING FIRE TO THE EARTH.”

I thought Jesus was supposed to bring peace to us? Isn't that what the angels announced at his birth? "Peace on earth to those on whom God's favour rests" (Lk 2:14). He has brought peace because our faith in him reassures us we are at peace with God; our sins have been forgiven. Jesus has taught us that if a sister or brother has anything against us, we have to leave our gift at the altar and be reconciled with that one (Matt 5:23-24). Ours is to be a community where peace reigns and when it doesn't, we are to work to bring it about.

Today Jesus is talking about peace, but not the kind of peace the world gives – not peace at any price. Not the peace that keeps us quiet when someone is being abused. Not merely the peace we feel when we have plenty and our life is comfortable. Not synthetic peace, when we are at odds with those around us, but we keep silent and settle for "peace at any price."

At the beginning of Luke's Gospel the prophet Simeon told Jesus' parents, at his dedication in the Temple, that Jesus was "destined for the downfall and the rise of many in Israel, a sign that will be opposed" (2:34). If our first commitment is to Jesus then that will challenge all of our other loyalties – even our loyalty to family, society and nation. Jesus certainly is not against family unity and loyalties. Our shared faith in him can make us a stronger and more supportive family. But, as he predicted and has happened, being his disciples can even split the most close-knit family. Following Jesus, he says, will ask us to pay a price, and that may very well happen in our own homes, "father will be divided against his son... a mother against her daughter."

THANK YOU

Thank you, parishioners, for your participation in celebrating our feast day, St Dominic, last weekend. It was cloudy and cold for the whole weekend, but our gathering brought forth the warmth of friendship and community. By celebrating together between school and church, we bring thankfulness and hope together in God.

STAY VIGILANT

Our sacristy was intruded 2 weeks ago; raffle tickets and money were stolen. It was not the first time that happened in the sacristy. Please take your bag with you when coming for communion, thief might be around waiting for chances.

Fr Peter Toan Nguyen, OP, PP

Deadline for Bulletin: 10.00am Thursday

Next weekend we are conducting our "Welcoming the Stranger" annual parish appeal to help fund the parish's continuing support for vulnerable refugees and people seeking asylum in our community while they wait for the Department's decision re the application for refugee status. St

Dominic's "Welcoming the Stranger" asylum seeker and refugee project has helped families from Syria, Afghanistan, Malaysia and Pakistan over the last 6 years with accommodation and social support. Basically it is our parish responding to the needs of a very vulnerable group of people who have fled war and/or persecution, inspired by Jesus' words - "I was hungry and you gave me food,... I was a stranger and you made me welcome." (Mt:25: 35) We rely completely on the support of the parishioners of St Dominic's to continue this work on your behalf. Donations are tax deductible.
