WATCHING AND READY

Jesus is coming close to the end of his public ministry. He senses the forces gathering against him and his fragile band of followers. He has been predicting his passion and death.

We do not try to determine the "day and the hour" of Christ's return. We have hope that He will come and, as Jesus says to us today, we leave the date in God's hands. We live with that expectation, but we don't wait around with folded arms. Instead, we roll up our sleeves to work, to be people who are loving signs of Christ's presence in the world. We also pray for the coming of God's reign into our everyday world as we pray in our eucharistic celebration, "thy kingdom come."

PASTORAL ASSOCIATE for St Dominic's Parish

The Parish seeks to appoint a Pastoral Associate on 3 days per week commencing on 29 January 2019.

A Position Description is available from the Parish Office, contact: Manuela Brambilla (03) 9912 6870 ext. 310, email: secretary@stdominics.org.au

Applications close: 7 December 2018.

The Australian Church has launched Plenary Council 2020 and we are in its first stage, Open Listening and Dialogue. All of us, both individuals and groups, are invited to engage in an open and inclusive process of listening, dialogue and discernment about the future of the Catholic Church in Australia. That is a way of sharing our stories of life and faith.

The Plenary Council wants to hear the voice of as many people as possible. Christmas is time of sharing. It is an opportunity to connect with family and friends and let others know that our stories of life and faith matter. The Church is planning for the future and needs to hear voices of people from all paths of life. The question for all of us to consider and respond at this stage is: "What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?"

I hope that whenever any groups of our parish come to meeting, we'll spend some time in pondering and responding to that question. Your voice is important and needed, please join in, be part of the story! Speak boldly and with passion, listen with an open and humble heart. Together, we are on a journey of listening to God by listening to one another. Stories of individuals and groups from around the country help shape the Plenary Council agenda.

The Open Listening and Dialogue Stage of the Plenary Council runs until Ash Wednesday 2019.

Hope for the best for our future.

Fr Peter Toan Nguyen OP, PP

11am Offertory Hymn

Let all mortal flesh keep silence,
and with fear and trembling stand;
ponder nothing earthly minded,
for with blessing in his hand
Christ our God to earth descen—ding, our full homage to demand.

King of kings, yet born of Mary,
as of old on earth He stood,
Lord of lords, in human vesture,
in the body and the blood.
He will give to all the faith—ful
his own self for heavenly food.

Rank on rank the host of heaven spreads its vanguard on the way, as the Light of light comes shining from the realms of endless day,
that the pow'rs of hell may va—nish
as the darkness clears away.

At His feet the six-winged seraphs, cherubim, with sleepless eye,
veil their faces to the Presence,
as with ceaseless voice they cry,
"alleluia, allelu—ia!
alleluia, Lord most high!"

MAYBE YOU CAN HELP AN ASYLUM SEEKER or REFUGEE

Sr Bridget at the Brigidine Asylum Seeker Project (BASP) says that at the moment the greatest needs of asylum seekers/refugees are: Accommodations, Emergency relief, Jobs
If you are thinking of employing someone, maybe there is an asylum seeker or refugee who could do the job. As you might imagine they find it very hard to get into the job market. BASP has a 'job seeker coordinator' who works to match jobs with a suitable asylum seeker or refugee. If you think you might be able to help, please call Peter Charles (0398362229) to discuss."
