“LOOK, THERE IS THE LAMB OF GOD THAT TAKES AWAY THE SIN OF THE WOLD.”

Today's gospel continues the story of Jesus' baptism story from a different perspective. John the Baptist announces the identity of Jesus as the “the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.” The phrase ‘the Lamb of God’ recalls great event happened for the God's chosen people in Egypt. It was the Passover in Egypt when God told Moses to have His people kill a lamb and sprinkle its blood on their doorposts and lintels as a sign to distinguish their homes from the Egyptians, and when the death angel comes he will Passover their houses.

The Lamb of God is the Lamb of sacrifice. The adjectival participle, “that takes away sin,” expresses the idea of the pardoning or forgiveness of sin, and the removal of guilt because Jesus was destined to be sacrificed like a spotless lamb as a sin offering to God. We come to understand the term ‘the Lamb of God’ referred to Jesus, who volunteered to carry the cross, and being crucified, died, and rose again to save us from our sins. Jesus has made the ultimate sacrifice in dying, once and for all, for the forgiveness of sins.

Jesus in his public ministry reminded the apostles about his own baptism. We today understand Jesus talked about his cross, and death, and resurrection. The apostles came to understand what Jesus meant about his baptism, not before, but after he rose; leaving behind the now empty tomb. It is the 'Cup of Salvation' Jesus once asked if the sons of Zebedee could drink it, when their mother asked Jesus to allow one of her sons to sit on his right hand side, and the other on his left (Mat 20:20-23).

At Mass, just before communion, we hear the very words that John the Baptist used when first announcing the presence of Jesus, “Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sin of the world.” What a blessing it is if we take that announcement as a reminder that we too are called to be like John the Baptist to other people.

We, who have been baptised in the spirit, are called to point towards Jesus not simply by word of mouth, but above all by daily lives lived by his standards of compassion, care and forgiveness.
