Today's Gospel is a part of Jesus' farewell speech to his disciples. It takes place on the night before his crucifixion, and he is giving his disciples final instructions for continuing his work. Since it is his very last night with the disciples, Jesus tends to teach them important issues about humility, acceptance and love.

Judas' departure begins the process by which he will betray Jesus to the authorities. His departure serves a backdrop for the glory and indicates a new phase of life. "Now has the Son of Man been glorified, and in him God has been glorified". The Son of Man, in demonstrating such all-embracing and all-powerful love, is the manifestation and the reality of the very love of God. This reality of God's love is expressed by the Son of Man, who came not to condemn the world but to save it. Jesus is glorified by God. Jesus knows that Judas' actions will lead to his death, but that will result in victory over sin and death. The disciples don't realize it even though Jesus has told them several times that he will die and rise again.

Jesus is the source of comfort and strength for the disciples, and he knows that they must learn to support one another after he returns to heaven. That is one reason why he issues the commandment to love one another. It is also the new commandment that we as his modern disciples are to follow.

"Love one another just as I have loved you". Jesus is a clear model of the love he requires, and he proves that by washing the disciples' feet. The commandment focuses on the Christian community. We are called on to love everyone - friends, enemies and total strangers. This new commandment is open ended. There is no end to the requirement, so we can never say that we have obeyed it entirely.

When we love as Jesus has loved us – by total commitment to any and all children of God – we make God's love visible. We show ourselves to be Jesus' representatives on earth – his disciples. This is the love that demands action, and if our actions mirror those of Jesus, as disciples we make his love visible in our own world.

Deadline for Bulletin: 10.00am Thursday

CHAPLAINCY SUNDAY 2019 Sunday 19 May

The Melbourne Catholic Archbishop's Charitable Fund will be conducting its annual Chaplaincy Sunday Appeal in parishes to support the vital work of Catholic chaplains in our community this coming Sunday. The presence of Catholic chaplains in all the health, aged care, and justice systems across Melbourne is a crucial witness to our faith, a crucial dimension of our service of love, and a vital testimony to the value of life in all its stages. The focus for 2019 is healthcare Chaplaincy. Healthcare chaplains offer emotional, spiritual and sacramental support to patients and their families in Melbourne's major public hospitals, as well as hospitals in regional Victoria. Parishioners are encouraged to offer prayers and a financial donation to help provide continued spiritual and emotional comfort to families facing illness, pain, grief and death. If you would like further information about the Appeal or to donate online, please visit the Chaplaincy Sunday webpage www.cam.org.au/chaplaincy, or contact the Office of Philanthropy on 9926 5731.
