“UNLESS YOU REPENT YOU WILL ALL PERISH”

When disasters happen, whether created by people or nature, we tend to learn lessons from them and realize how fragile our existence is. Jesus indicates that the victims did nothing wrong, nothing from them that caused their death. We should not mistake their death was God's punishment, or our good fortune as evidence of God's award. When things go wrong, they are signs to us to reflect on our lives and asks ourselves whether we are producing the fruit that is asked of us. Confronting the suddenness of death and the unpredictability of life, Jesus does not promise a life free of calamity but urges his hearers against false self-assurances. By raising the question “Do you suppose that these Galileans who suffered like that were worse sinners than any other Galileans?”, Jesus points out that we suffer because of our own sin, the sin of others and living in a sin cursed world. If life's fragility demands urgency, that urgency shows that life itself has carved out opportunity for us to seize God's graciousness, as the fig tree parable suggests. He concludes by giving a warning that without repentance that they were subject to likewise perish.

Repentance does not keep you from dying physically, but it is the first step in receiving spiritual life so that you will not perish eternally. Repentance is a change of mind that results in a change of action. If there is not a change of life, then there was no change of mind, there was no repentance and no faith.

The fig tree parable illustrates God's patience with people and the nature of repentance. Jesus has taught and given hope in God's offer of forgiveness through faith in His Son who was standing in front of them. God's patience is seen in the vineyard-keeper's intervention. He knows that figs usually respond well to fertilizer, so he proposes that the tree be left alone one more year during which he would dig around it and spread lots of manure. He has some optimism this will help and it will produce in which case it would be worth keeping. He will have done all that he could, but it will have proven itself to be a worthless tree and therefore subject to destruction at any time.

We are asked to be more sensitive to the needs of our world and of each other. We are asked to build a better place to live, and to support those who are struggle in any way.

PP Fr Peter Toan Nguyen OP

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Every Friday during Lent at 6.30pm
(after Mass)

PROJECT COMPASSION 2019 Peter goes to a boarding school in the Solomon Islands which has experienced water shortages for 60 years. Previously, students would have to walk kilometres each day in search of clean water, which was particularly challenging for Peter who is living with a disability. With Caritas Australia's support, the school has created a new reliable water system. With more free time and fewer illnesses caused by dirty water, Peter can fulfil his hope of focusing on his studies, providing him with brighter future. Please donate to Project Compassion 2019 and help young people with disabilities gain access to clean water in the Solomon Islands, providing hope for a brighter future. Lives change when we all give 100%. You can donate through Parish boxes and envelopes, by visiting www.caritas.org.au/projectcompassion or phoning 1800 024 413.

PALM SUNDAY Mass at 9.30am and 11am on Palm Sunday 14th April will start at 9.20am and 10.50am with the procession from the Priory. Since the supply of greenery for Palm Sunday is uncertain, we recommend that each person bring a small piece of greenery from your own garden.

FROM THE PRIORY

Dear parishioners,
This week I would like to ask your prayers for two Dominicans who are seriously ill.

Fr Karl Emerick, who studied here at St Dominic's, and who was ordained in 2014, has suffered an aneurism in the brain. He has survived two operations, and is making slow progress, but at this stage is paralysed on one side and unable to speak. He is in hospital in Adelaide.

Fr Brian Reynolds who was a much-loved Assistant Pastor here in the 1970s is seriously ill in Ireland, and is thought to be approaching death. His nephew tells me that he often spoke of his time at St Dominic's and his love for the people here.

FROM THE JUSTICE AND PEACE

GROUP As you prepare to buy your Easter chocolate this year, please consider this. You can make a difference. Recently Pope Francis said that "every person ought to have the awareness that purchasing is always a moral – and not simply an economic – act."

Cocoa is a key ingredient of chocolate and many children in West Africa are enslaved to pick the cocoa beans. They will never taste the delicious chocolate their slavery helps produce. Buy only slavery-free chocolate to ensure no enslaved children were involved in the production. To buy slavery-free Easter chocolate look for any of these three certification symbols (below) on the wrappers: FAIRTRADE, Rainforest Alliance and UTZ. It's delicious and you can buy it at ALDI, Haigh's, Oxfam and other leading supermarkets and shops. For detailed further information check out the ACRATH website.

ST JOSEPH'S CARMELITE AUXILIARY invite you to the ANNUAL DAY OF RETREAT on Monday 8th April from 10.30am till 2.30pm. Guest speaker Bishop Terence Curtin. All welcome.

From Ashes to the Living Font

(Text: Alan Hommerding)

1. From ashes to the living font
Your Church must journey, Lord,
Baptised in grace, in grace renewed
by your most holy word.
2. Through fasting, prayer and charity,
your voice speaks deep within,
returning us to ways of truth
and turning us from sin.
3. For thirsting hearts let waters flow,
our fainting souls revive,
and at the well your waters give our everlasting life.
4. From ashes to the living font,
Your Church must journey still,
Through cross and tomb to Easter joy,
in Spirit-fire fulfilled.

PROPER OF THE MASS: 3rd Sunday of Lent, Year C

Entrance Antiphon

My eyes are always on the Lord, for he rescues my feet from the snare.
Turn to me and have mercy on me, for I am alone and poor.

Responsorial Psalm

The Lord is kind and merciful.

Gospel Acclamation

Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!
Repent, says the Lord,; the kingdom of heaven is at hand.
Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!

Communion Antiphon

For anyone who drinks it, says the Lord, the water shall give will become in him a spring welling up to eternal life.
