SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

Congratulations to all our young people who were confirmed on last Friday. We look forward to their deep commitment to the Christian life into the future. Our thanks to St Dominic's School teachers, the parents, the Pastoral Associate and all others who helped them be prepared for the sacrament. Our gratitude to the Dominican brothers, Bec Rondinelli and Christian and Virginia Burns who were involved in sharing their faith living on the Retreat day to make the day enjoyable and memorable one for all.

MY ANNUAL HOLIDAY

I'll be away for three-week holiday from next Monday. I'll go back to Vietnam to visit my brother and relatives. Fr Martin will be in charge for the first week and then Fr Kevin for the rest.

Fr Peter Toan Nguyen, OP, PP

“WELCOMING THE STRANGER” 2019 PARISH APPEAL

“I was a stranger and you made me welcome.” (Mt:25: 35)
St Dominic's parishioners, responding to the call of the Gospel, should feel proud of the help and support they have given to vulnerable asylum seekers and refugees over the past 5 ½ years.

At present the parish is helping 3 families. One is from Pakistan, with three children at Catholic schools in Dandenong. The father has a Safe Haven 5 year visa and has serious health issues. The family moved into new accommodation last week and we have committed to paying their rent for 12 months. Another Pakistani family, without work rights and serious health issues, is also being supported by you for 6 months. And we have committed to helping a recently arrived Sri Lankan family in Airport West referred by Fr Peter Carrucan who spoke at St Dominic's last year.

Today we are having our 2019 parish appeal to help fund this continuing work which cannot continue without your generous support.

Envelopes have been placed at the of seats for your donation; these can be given to the collectors at the doors after Mass or returned to the parish office or at Mass next weekend. Any contribution you can make will be greatly appreciated and every dollar raised is spent on support for asylum seekers and donations are tax deductible.

Peter Charles (Chair, Welcoming the Stranger Committee)

Worth thinking about when we are asked to tip something into a cup in Burke Road.
