“YOUR FAITH HAS SAVED YOU”

To be a beggar is to be dependent on others. Bartimaeus was also blind which made him even more helpless. He completely depended on the kindness and mercy of other people.

Bartimaeus was physically, totally blind. But he was not totally ‘spiritually’ blind. When he heard that Jesus was nearby, all kinds of thoughts came to his mind. He had heard about this miracle doer. Jesus had healed lepers and crippled people. He had even raised people from the dead! And... this was important for Bartimaeus.

Through his eye of faith Bartimaeus shouted, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” It was only a simple expression of Bartimaeus’ faith. He believed that Jesus could do something for him. In his desperate helplessness, Bartimaeus called on Jesus to help him! His faith may have been small, but what he had, he used to call on the Lord Jesus.

Although Bartimaeus calls directly on Jesus, Jesus does not answer him back directly. Note how Jesus tells His disciples to go and call him. Jesus could have spoken directly and personally to Bartimaeus Himself. That was no problem. But Jesus has His own way of doing things. He had a reason for that. He chose to involve His disciples because it would be better for them to get involved. It is better for His followers — for you and me, too.

Jesus spoke to Bartimaeus, “Go, your faith has saved you”. Those words must have transformed Bartimaeus. He immediately received his sight and followed Jesus on the way. What a joy it must have been for this man to receive his sight! And the first person Bartimaeus saw was... JESUS!

THANKSGIVING WEEKEND

Thank you!

At all masses this weekend, we offer thanks to God for the parishioners and parish staff who gave their time and support to developing the stewardship renewal program, within the parish, for the first time.

We also extend thanksgiving to all, including the novices and student brothers, who brought the expo day to reality- reaching out to a wide range of parishioners.

Lastly we express our thanks to all who have so far pledged to participate in the stewardship program, including those who have continued to contribute on a regular basis.

Dear friends of St Dominic's, I would just like to say thank you so much for the beautiful gifts, cards and kind words. I am feeling very blessed by you all.
Blessing Jacinta.

THE SVDP CONFERENCE at St Dominic's is assisting a Vietnamese woman who has fled domestic violence and her two children. One of the children is a lovely young boy aged 15 years. The Domestic Violence Organisation that is helping the family has requested advice as to see if we can help this teenager, who is in a local Secondary College, with tutoring in English. He is a little hesitant in speaking to us, but has a reasonable understanding of English. We are looking for a teacher or a retired teacher that legally can undertake tutoring. Obviously the person needs to have a current Working With Children Check (WWCC). EDVOS, the Domestic Violence Support Service may be able to pay some fees for your time. Please e-mail me if you are interested at jgdowling@yahoo.com.au with your full details which will be passed onto EDVOS who will make contact with you, if they believe you are suitable to assist in this case.

NEW ALTAR CLOTH Siena College has given us a new altar cloth specially made at Kopanang by rural women near Durban in South Africa for the altar of this church. It is now on our altar. The surrounds of the altar cloth are full of beautiful African and Dominican Symbols. We invite you to come and look at them. It is a unique and spectacular piece of artwork. Sister Sheila Flynn OP has for many decades been working with the women of Kopanang to help them increase their skills so that they may take their rightful place in society - equal with their male counterparts, never to be taken for granted in many places in our world. A big thank you to Siena College for this gift.

Recessional Hymn—Saturday 6pm Mass

FOR THE HEALING OF THE NATIONS

For the healing of the nations,
 Lord we pray with one accord;
 For a just and equal sharing;
 of the things that earth affords.
 To a life of love in action, help us rise and pledge our word.

Lead us, Father, into freedom.
 From despair your world release.
 That redeemed from war and hatred,
 all may come and go in peace.
 Show us how, through care and goodness,
 fear will die and hope increase.

All that kills abundant living, let it from the earth be banned;
 Pride of status, race or schooling,
 dogmas that obscure your plan.
 In our common quest for justice,
 may we hallow life's brief span.

You, Creator God,
 have written Your great name on humankind;
 For our growing in your likeness
 bring the life of Christ to mind;
 That by our response and service earth
 its destiny may find.
(Melody: Tantum Ergo St. Thomas Aquinas Text: Fred Kaan)
