LET THE SPIRIT TRANSFORM OUR LIFE

With the feast of Pentecost, we come to the end of the 50 days of Easter. From this point on we will witness the life the Spirit engenders in the church. We can call this day the "birthday of the church." It's clear from the inconsistent behaviour of the disciples during Jesus' ministry and their disintegration when he was arrested and killed that, without some intervention on God's part, there would be no church to spread the good news of Jesus Christ – hence the importance and necessity of Pentecost.

We are reminded that the feast of Pentecost wasn't a once-only outburst of sounds and sights a long time ago; but continues to challenge how we see ourselves as church and how we practice that faith together. The Spirit does not bring predictability and routine, but comes in flame and wind.

Pentecost reminds us we never can be sure how, or in whom, the Spirit will work. The feast cautions us to keep ears and eyes open lest we miss what new life the Spirit is breathing into our lives. We can invoke the Spirit, but we can't harness or tame the Spirit's gifts. The Bible is quite clear that God's Spirit cannot be controlled by humans. Even though we have celebrations in our parishes this day, to show the diversity of our church, still, Pentecost should shake us up. That is, if we let the mighty wind fill the sails of our spirit and the flames burn away the barnacles of resistance.

A TRIBUTE AND BIG THANKS

This weekend we express our appreciation and gratitude to Rod Junor who has been involved in the music ministry at the 11 am Sunday Mass, Christmas and Easter liturgies, on a regular basis, for nearly 19 years. Rod commenced as organist in 2001 and has continued in that role until now. In 2013 with the impending retirement of the then Choir Director, Jerome Deakin, Rod assumed the role of Co-Director of the choir and became Organist and Choir Director from 2014. We thank Rod for his faithful service to the Parish over many years.

A morning tea in the Parish Centre, with members of the choir, will follow this Sunday's 11 am Mass of Pentecost.

We wish Rod all the best for the future and hope you may be free to join us after the Mass, to celebrate his exemplary musical contribution to the Parish.

Deadline for Bulletin: 10.00am Thursday
