

St Dominic's Parish Tennis Club

Ludus supra praemium

Serving the Parish since 1925

All parishioners are warmly invited to apply for membership of the Parish's Tennis Club - click on the Application Form link on the Parish website's home page to go to the Club's application form for details of types of membership, fees etc.

We are located at 10 Wiringa Ave, just behind the Parish school grounds.

The Club has 3 mod-grass courts with lights, a clubhouse with kitchen and toilet facilities and an outdoor barbecue area. We offer our members social and competitive tennis and professional coaching for all levels, and a great, friendly social environment.

Competitive tennis

Senior teams compete in

- Blackburn Districts Night Tennis Association on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, except during school holidays. Men's women's and mixed teams play - contact Frank Glynn [Frank.Glynn@spicers.com.au] for details
- mid-week ladies' in the Eastern Districts Women's Tennis Association - contact Jenny Houston [jennyhouston@bigpond.com]

Junior teams compete on Saturday and Sunday mornings – contact our Junior Tennis Convenor, David Aylmer [davidjaylmer@gmail.com]

Coaching

Professional coaching, for beginners through to advanced players, is provided at our courts by Peter Caruana and his team at Eastern Tennis Academy [www.easterntennis.com.au] - contact Peter on 9836 0097; mob.0409 857 321.
