Mary MacKillop Prayer.

(courtesy of the Sisters of St Joseph of the Sacred Heart)

Ever generous God,

You inspired Saint Mary MacKillop

To live her life faithful to the Gospel of Jesus Christ

and constant in bringing hope

and encouragement

to those who were disheartened,

lonely or needy.

With confidence in your generous providence and through the intercession of

Saint Mary MacKillop

We ask that you grant our request.....We ask that our faith and hope

be fired afresh by the Holy Spirit

so that we too, like Mary MacKillop,

may live with courage, trust and openness.

Ever generous God, hear our prayer.

We ask this through Jesus Christ.

Amen.

TAKE THE WAY OF THE GOSPEL

RE-IMAGINING OUR LOCAL CHURCH AS MISSION COMMUNITIES

At Pentecost, Archbishop Comensoli wrote to all the faithful of Melbourne inviting us into a conversation, to reimagine our local Church as mission communities, that is, a family of communities, working together.

What factors will be considered when forming these Missions?

Clergy and lay leaders are being asked to begin discerning how these Missions could look like at the local level. Some clergy and lay leaders have already begun conversations with their neighbours to explore where there are possible synergies and shared ways of ministering to locals.

Archbishop Comensoli has offered these three questions to help in these discussions:

- Where are the local Missions of our time and place?
- What parishes might be organically formed into a family of communities for the purpose of bringing people into the fullness of the Gospel of life, and for the sake of pastoral viability and sacramental vitality?
- How might the Missions of today be effectively resourced—materially, ministerially and spiritually?

St. Mary of the Cross MacKillop

St. Mary MacKillop,
Pray For Us.

Dear others and sisters in Jesus.

Everyone might remember the day Mary MacKillop was Canonised, 17 Oct.2010. The ceremony was held in Vatican. And it was being telecast on TV Channels all over. Here in Melbourne city huge televisions were set up to display the ceremony, so that as many people as possible could come and watch it together and celebrate the day with fitting jubilation. I believe very many of you had gathered there on the day, so had I.

As the day was fast approaching, many were skeptical about the weather. No one wanted a bad weather that would ruin the joy of the day. The weather forecast said it would be a rainy day. Everyone knew, the weather forecast seldom goes wrong. So, People cared to take umbrellas with them, as they proceeded to the city-parks and other venues of the much awaited celebration. I too had taken an umbrella with me; man of little faith.

And off course dark clouds filled the skies of Melbourne city. But the clouds were there only to witness the celebrations. It was a beautiful day, a memorable day, a blessed day. A few drops did come down; we wanted more of it, because we knew they were drops of blessings. The happenings on the day of the canonization of Mary MacKillop were unusual.

Something unusual had happened also more than a century ago in North Sydney. When Sr. Mary MacKillop of the Cross had died and her funeral service was going on, many people were touching her body with rosaries and other pious objects. Some people even took home with them hand full of soil from around her grave. Everyone knew that Mary MacKillop was already a saint. After all she was a person of very many good works. Let's copy her Motto, "Never see a need without doing something about it". Keep Safe everyone, Fr. Leenus.
