CATHOLIC CARE

For the last 84 years, Catholic Care has been the social services agency for the Archdiocese of Melbourne that has looked to serve those most in need Relationships are at the heart of why Catholic Care exists; they help vulnerable individuals and families to build positive relationships and repair connections with those closest in their lives, so they can live life to the full. Pope Francis encourages us to take positive action by helping the disadvantaged when he writes "To change the world we must be good to those who cannot repay us".

Archbishop Comensoli

MEDITATION

To respond to God means to believe him.

Anyone who wants to believe needs a heart that is ready to listen (see 1 Kings 3:9). In many ways God seeks contact with us. In every human encounter, in every moving experience of nature, in every apparent coincidence, in every challenge, every suffering, there is a hidden message from God to us. He speaks even more clearly to us when he turns to us in his Word or in the voice of our conscience. He addresses us as friends. Therefore we, too, should respond as friends and believe him, trust him completely, learn to understand him better and better, and accept his will without reservation.
