Archbishop's Campaign 2024

Dear brothers and sisters in Jesus,

When Jesus first began his work, he did so with an invitation. As he walked along the shore of Lake Galilee, he saw two brothers who were fishermen, Simon and Andrew, catching fish. Jesus invited them to come with him, saying, 'Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.' At once they left their nets and went with him.

As Jesus went on, he saw two other brothers, James and John. They were in their boat with their father getting their nets ready. Again, Jesus called the men and they at once left their boat and their father and followed him.

As the first disciples responded to Jesus' invitation to 'Come, follow me' and, with him, grow the early Church, we too are called to continue this life-giving work.

Today, we are each invited to make a pledge to the 2024 Archbishop's Campaign in a special collection.

It is an exciting time of renewal for the Church in our Archdiocese. We have vibrant faith communities that are thriving, particularly in the growth corridors of suburban Melbourne. Young people are returning to the Church in growing numbers, and our migrant communities are reimagining what the practice of Catholic faith looks like across our urban, suburban, regional and rural parishes. But these things cannot happen without our support.

This week, we are all asked to make a financial commitment to support the vital ministries that give life to our community of faith here in the Archdiocese of Melbourne. We know that times are difficult and not all are able to give as generously as they might like.

We ask that you look to your hearts as you consider Jesus' invitation to 'Come, follow me' and respond to his invitation to help build the Church of the future. In discerning your gift, we invite you to think beyond today and the concerns of this parish, to dream of the Church you want for your children and grandchildren, and to consider an ongoing monthly gift to bring that Church to life. If you have donated or committed to donating already, thank you. Your gifts are deeply appreciated.

For those who are still considering a pledge, I encourage you to look through the brochure at the life-giving work being done across our parish and Archdiocese. To donate, you can either make an online donation by scanning the QR code on the tear-off pledge card attached to the Campaign envelope in your pew, or fill out a pledge card to make a cash or cheque donation. Donations and pledge cards will be taken up during the Special Collection. If you want to take the pledge card home, you can post it directly to the Archdiocese using the pre-paid envelope attached to the card, or drop it into the presbytery or parish office at another time.

On behalf of Archbishop Peter and myself, I thank you for your contribution to the Archbishop's Campaign.

Dad: "No son, why do you ask?"

Johnny: "Well where did you find our mummy?"
