Heavenly Father, help us respond to and live out our mission in the Church.

Help all your people to know their vocation in life and assist them to prepare for it.

For your greater glory,

Give those whom you call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithfully.

Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

24—25 August 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C

Isaiah 66:18-21 Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13 Luke 13:22-30

31 August—1 September 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C

Sirach 3: 17-20, 28-29 Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24 Luke 14:1, 7-14

MEDITATION

God does not want men and women to suffer and die. God's original idea for us was paradise: life forever and peace between God and man and their environment, between man and woman.

Often we sense how life ought to be, how we ought to be, but in fact we do not live in peace with ourselves, act out of fear and uncontrolled emotions, and have lost the original harmony that man had with the world and ultimately with God. In Sacred Scripture the experience of this alienation is expressed in the story of the Fall. Because sin crept in, Adam and Eve had to leave paradise, in which they were in harmony with each other and with God. The toil of work, suffering, mortality, and the temptation to sin are signs of this loss of paradise.
