*Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake,
 for theirs is the kingdom of heaven*

Jesus himself warns us that the path he proposes goes against the flow, even making us challenge society by the way we live and, as a result, becoming a nuisance. He reminds us how many people have been, and still are, persecuted simply because they struggle for justice, because they take seriously their commitment to God and to others. Unless we wish to sink into an obscure mediocrity, let us not long for an easy life, for "whoever would save his life will lose it" (Mt 16:25).

Whatever weariness and pain we may experience in living the commandment of love and following the way of justice, the cross remains the source of our growth and sanctification. We must never forget that when the New Testament tells us that we will have to endure suffering for the Gospel's sake, it speaks precisely of persecution (cf. Acts 5:41; Phil 1:29; Col 1:24; 2 Tim 1:12; 1 Pet 2:20, 4:14-16; Rev 2:10).

Persecutions are not a reality of the past, for today too we experience them, whether by the shedding of blood, as is the case with so many contemporary martyrs, or by more subtle means, by slander and lies. Jesus calls us blessed when people "utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account" (Mt 5:11). At other times, persecution can take the form of gibes that try to caricature our faith and make us seem ridiculous.

Accepting daily the path of the Gospel, even though it may cause us problems: that is holiness.

Pope Francis Gaudete et Exsultate (2018) nn 90, 92, 94

Parish Stewardship 2018 Prayer

*Lord, we thank you for calling us to be your Church.
 Through our Baptism we are called to service and to witness.*

*In the Eucharist we sustain and strengthen that call.
 By serving others we follow your example and proclaim our beliefs.
 By our Christian generosity
 we demonstrate our love and care.*

*Lord, help us always to worship you as you deserve, to grow in faith and service
 and to give without counting the cost.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen*
