MOON LANDING 50 YEARS

As we gaze up at the Moon, marveling at the extraordinary event 50 years ago when two men took the first human steps on the Moon, we can perhaps think of the image of Our Lady as the Moon, drawing her light and beauty from Christ her Son. This is a prayer of St Anthony of Padua:

*We beg you, Our Lady,
That you, who are the morning star,
Dispel with your splendour
The darkness of diabolical temptation
Which envelops our soul.
May you, who are the full moon,
Fill our void and emptiness,
Dissipate the darkness of our sins,
So we may merit to attain
the fullness of eternal life,
And the light of eternal glory.
May He who created you to be our light,
And brought about your birth
in order to be born from you,
Grant this, to whom be honour and glory
for all ages. Amen.*

PAROUSIA—A MODEL FOR MISSION

parousiamedia.com

Parousia believes that by introducing people to Jesus, many will choose friendship with him over everything else and so become his disciples. Parousia begins this process of evangelization by reaching out to already connected Catholics, inviting them to participate in the mission of the Church and forming them for mission. Catholic disciples who are formed and activated for mission then invite others into friendship with Jesus. Evangelising, forming and leading: this is the Parousia mission.

SUPPORT YOUR PRIEST SUNDAY

Priests are icons of Jesus Christ and Eternal High Priest. Their unique and indispensable witness, combined with their role as ministers of the Word and Sacrament truly make Jesus present in the midst of the Church.

Parousia would also like to announce that the inaugural Support Your Priest Sunday will be held on Sunday 4 August. This is a Parousia sponsored day of national significance that will take place each year around the feast of St John Vianney, patron of parish clergy.

Parousia sponsors a novena for the intentions of priests in which participants may sign up to 9 days of prayer commencing Saturday 27 July leading up to the feast of St John Vianney (4 August).

Parishioners are encouraged to give their parish priest a token of love, thanksgiving and support for his ministry. This may take many forms, such as gifts of money and other tokens, cards and letters of thanks and encouragement. Fasting and other acts of penance for our priests may be offered.

MEDITATION

What the Church is on a large scale, the family is on a small scale: an image of God's love in human fellowship. Indeed, every marriage is perfected in openness to others, to the children that God sends, in mutual acceptance, in hospitality and being for others.

Nothing in the early Church fascinated people more about the "New Way" of the Christians than their "domestic churches". Often someone "believed in the Lord, together with all his household; and many ... believed and were baptised (Acts 18:8).

In an unbelieving world, island of living faith were formed, places of prayer, mutual sharing, and cordial hospitality. Rome, Corinth, Antioch, the great cities of antiquity, were soon permeated with domestic churches that were like points of light. Even today families in which Christ is at home are the leaven that renews our society.

Contemplative prayer is love, silence, listening, and being in the presence of God. For interior prayer one needs time, resolve, and above all a pure heart. It is the humble, poor devotion of a creature that drops all masks, believes in love, and seeks God from the heart. Interior prayer is often called the prayer of the heart and contemplation.
