Child Safety—Your Responsibility

Most Reverend Anthony John Ireland

You are most Welcome to our Parish.

We wish you a Very Happy Feast Day and God's continued blessings upon you on the occasion of the feast of your Patron Saint on 13th June, as well.

We also thank you for your kind visit to us and for celebrating the Festal Mass for us this Sunday.

St Anthony of Padua in Art

As the number of Franciscan saints increased, iconography struggled to distinguish Anthony from the others. Because of a legend that he had once preached to the fish by the mouth of the river Marecchia in Rimini, this was sometimes used as his attribute. He is also often seen with a white lily stalk, representing his purity. Other conventions referred to St. Anthony's visionary fervor. Thus, one attribute in use for some time was a flaming heart. He is also sometimes depicted along with the mule in Rimini that allegedly bowed down to him holding the Eucharist.

In 1511, Titian painted three large frescoes in the Scuola del Santo in Padua, depicting scenes of the miracles from the life of Saint Anthony: The Miracle of the Jealous Husband, which depicts the murder of a young woman by her husband; A Child Testifying to Its Mother's Innocence; and The Saint Healing the Young Man with a Broken Limb.<sup>[31]</sup>

Another key pattern has him meditating on an open book in which the Christ Child himself appears, as in the El Greco above. Over time the child came to be shown considerably larger than the book and some images even do without the book entirely. He typically appears carrying the infant Jesus and holding a cross.<sup>[32]</sup> In popular votive offerings, Anthony is often depicted as miraculously saving individuals in various accidents. St Anthony, Pray for us.

Our Parish Prayer

God, our loving Father, you are glorified in your servant, Anthony.

In his life on earth you give us an example of how to live.

In our prayer through him you give us his friendship.

In his prayer for the church you give us strength and protection.

We praise and thank you that St Anthony's Parish has been placed under his care.

Grant that we may always follow you and know your help in our every need.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God, for ever and ever.

Amen

The Most Holy Trinity

Our belief is in 'One God-three Divine Persons'. How is that possible? we do not understand. The Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit each of them is God yet there is only one God? We have no answer to the how of it. We can only say "It is a mystery. Thee reason why we call it a mystery is because it exceeds our ability of our mind to understand it. It may sounds illogical. In fact, there needs to be no surprise that the inner nature of God cannot be understood by our minds. Any reality that our minds can grasp or understand is by definition inferior to our minds. The Supreme God by definition has to be greater than our minds. Therefore it is fitting that the inner nature of God is greater than our created minds and it's more than logical that it remains a mystery to humans and to angels.

We have a few more beliefs related to our belief in Three Persons in One God. Namely, we attribute the act of creation to the Father, act of redemption to the Son and the act of sanctification to the Holy Spirit. Yet none of the Three exists nor acts in isolation from the other two. That is to say 'Father exists and creates together with the Son and the Holy Spirit; the Son exists and redeems together with the Father and the Holy Spirit; the Holy Spirit exists and sanctifies together with the Father and the Son.

A few wrong notions are that there are no three persons in One God, rather three manifestations of the same God. According to those who believe in this notion when God manifests Himself as the creator then He is the Father, when He manifests Himself as the redeemer then He is the Son and when He manifests Himself as the Sanctifier then He is the Holy Spirit. According to some group there is only One Person in One God. While some other group believes that because there are three persons in God there must be three Gods. Yet some other group argues that Jesus is not God, but little less than God and that The Holy Spirit is not God nor he is a person but just a power. According to some others Holy Spirit is only a ministering angel of God. Some group believes that the Father alone is eternal having no beginning. According to them The Son and the Holy Spirit had a beginning. These notions are not agreeable to us.

What we as Catholics believe is that these three are real Persons distinct from Each other yet inseparable. Each one is fully God yet only One God. And that all three are eternal having neither beginning nor an end even though the Son proceeds from the Father. The Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son. All three are equal in majesty and power. And that from all eternity God is interpersonal—three persons in perfect union of will and activity, so perfect that they are truly One God. This Sunday is set apart as Holy Trinity Sunday is not so much in order to try to understand or grasp the how of it; rather it is to adore, glorify, praise and worship the holy mystery of three persons in One God.

So as we wonder at the Most Holy Trinity we have a reason to wonder at ourselves, too. We wonder at the fact that we are created in the image of the same Trinitarian God. Since we are created in the image of One God in Three Persons it tells us of the kind of people we should be. Though, we are many distinct persons, yet we are to live and function as if we are but one. Just as God does not exist in isolated individualism rather in a community of relationships, so too, we who are created in His image and likeness must shun every tendency to isolationism and individualism. May the Triune God bless you.

One day, a heretic told Anthony that he would believe that Christ was truly present in the Eucharist only if his mule bowed down to it. They established that the test should take place in three days. The heretic starved his mule for the next three days. When the appointed time had arrived, Anthony stood off to one side with the consecrated host in his hands, while the heretic stood to the other holding some fodder for the mule to eat. The mule, ignoring its own extreme hunger, went before the Eucharist and knelt down to adore the Blessed Sacrament.

St Anthony of Padua, Pray for us!
