4th Sunday of Lent (Year A) (LAETARE SUNDAY)

"I AM THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD, ANYONE WHO FOLLOWS ME WILL HAVE THE LIGHT OF LIFE."

There is a story told about a little boy at church with his mother. He was a good little boy, quiet and well behaved. He didn't cause any problems. But every once in a while he would stand up on the pew, turn around, look at the people behind him and smile at them beautifully. Soon everybody behind him was starting to smile back at him, too. It was all going fine until his mother realized what the little boy was doing. When she did, she grabbed him by his ear and twisted it a bit, told him to sit down and remember that he was in the church. Then he started sniffing and crying, and she turned to him and said, "That's better." It's kind of sad, isn't it, that some have the impression that when we are at church it is to be all gloom and doom, and that there is nothing here to really bring joy into our lives?

Everything is going to be okay in the end.
If it's not okay, it's not the end.

Today is the 4th Sunday of Lent, and as the Liturgical tradition holds - it is rather unique, as evidenced by the rose-colored vestment. Like the 3rd Sunday of Advent ('Gaudete Sunday'), the 4th Sunday of Lent is a break in an otherwise penitential season and it marks the halfway in our Lenten preparation for Easter. The 4th Sunday of Lent customarily is called the "Laetare Sunday," and it takes its name from the opening words of today's Mass, the Introit's 'Laetare, Jerusalem.' The Latin word 'Laetare' means 'rejoice.' So, today the Church rejoices in joyful anticipation of the Easter mystery. The Lord wants us to be joyful people, even amidst our troubles.

Q. What sort of person was Boaz before he married Ruth? Ans. Ruth-less.
