Bishop Peter Elliott

Remembrance Day

100 years today since the end of the First World War. 16 million people perished in this most horrific war, including 60,000 Australians. At Fatima, Our Lady predicted a far worse war, which afflicted the world 1939-1945. Pope John Paul II often spoke of the "bloody century" - the 20th century - which saw so much human grief, death, dislocation and suffering. As we remember our war dead, we beg the Lord of nations to bless our world with peace.

Weekend Masses

It is timely for us to think about the number of weekend Masses celebrated at St Anthony's and St Aloysius. Priests are directed to celebrate no more than 3 Sunday Masses (Canon 905). The church is mindful of the spirituality and capacity of individual priests to celebrate the Eucharist with devotion, to preach with conviction, to lead the people in prayer, song and worship. 400 people attend 3 Masses celebrated at St Aloysius in Bl John Henry Newman parish. A congregation of 20-25 regularly attend Sunday 9.15am English Mass. About 600 people attend weekend Masses at St Anthony's.

Beginning weekend 29-30 December, can we try this Mass schedule at St Anthony's Church:
Saturday 6pm Vigil Mass
Sunday 8.30am, 11am, 5pm Masses

This programme reflects the Mass schedule in nearby parishes. When Saturday night Mass was introduced in 1970s, Melbourne parishes provided late Masses mainly to provide for afternoon football. An earlier time allows families to spend Saturday evening together, and there are clear advantages both for summer and winter.

A programme of Saturday Vigil Masses for our school families has been prepared for 2019. Along with preparation for the Sacraments, our parish and schools must work to draw our whole parish family together for Sunday worship and community life.

Rejoice and be Glad (Mt 5:12)

The Christian life is a constant battle. We need strength and courage to withstand the temptations of the devil and to proclaim the Gospel. This battle is sweet, for it allows us to rejoice each time the Lord triumphs in our lives.

We are not dealing merely with a battle against the world and a worldly mentality that would deceive us and leave us dull and mediocre, lacking in enthusiasm and joy. Nor can this battle be reduced to the struggle against our human weaknesses and proclivities (be they laziness, lust, envy, jealousy or any others). It is also a constant struggle against the devil, the prince of evil. Jesus himself celebrates our victories. He rejoiced when his disciples made progress in preaching the Gospel and overcoming the opposition of the evil one: "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven" (Lk 10:18)

Hence, we should not think of the devil as a myth, a representation, a symbol, a figure of speech or an idea. This mistake would lead us to let down our guard, to grow careless and end up more vulnerable. The devil does not need to possess us. He poisons us with the venom of hatred, desolation, envy and vice. When we let down our guard, he takes advantage of it to destroy our lives, our families and our communities. "Like a roaring lion, he prowls around, looking for someone to devour" (1 Pet 5:8).
