27th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C
Faith the size of a mustard seed

Dear brothers and sisters in Jesus,

We all have heard of African Impala. Some of us probably have seen them. They look like deer. They are capable of jumping as high as 3 meters. Yet in a zoo these animals are kept in an enclosure with walls that are only one meter high. They do not dare to jump over the one meter high walls, though they are capable of it. The reason is that before they attempt a jump, they would want to see the spot across the wall where they would be landing. The one meter walls do not let them see across the wall. So, they remain enclosed.

Like the African Impala we are also capable of big jumps, great achievements. But like them we are often kept within walls of uncertainty, fear and doubt. Since we cannot see what lies ahead of us, often we dare not take big steps. Such big steps demand faith. Faith is the ability to trust what we cannot see. Faith makes us free from uncertainty, fear and doubt. Faith makes us “see” what our physical eyes cannot not see.

According to Jesus even a bit of faith in God is enough to bring us great results. The secret of it is that, when we have faith, it is God who is at work; and there is nothing that is too hard for God. When we believe, God comes in and makes the impossible possible. And when we doubt, we doubt in God's ability. Thus we keep Him apart. As a result, the impossible remains impossible.

Today we heard Jesus saying that, faith even of the size of a mustard seed is sufficient to uproot a tree or remove a mountain. In other words, we don't need to have a lot of faith to experience God's wonders in our lives. Jesus did not say that, to remove a mustard seed we need faith of the size of a mountain. Rather, faith as much as a mustard seed is sufficient to overturn a mountainous problem.

An American Journal once reported the results of a study conducted by doctors. The study showed that, the patients who had a high degree of faith in God, recovered from their illnesses much faster, than those who had lesser degree of faith or no faith at all. It must be true in every area of our lives; in areas that concerns our spiritual well being as well as our physical.

So when we are faced with any sort of difficult situations, however simple or complex it maybe, we will do well to call upon God in faith. The problems maybe insignificant or significant, we will see that we are liberated from it by God who is almighty. Every form of evil: such as illnesses, misery, fear, addiction, despair, frustration etc can be turned into wholesome health, peace and joy if we believe.

We are all believers in a God who is almighty and compassionate. God is the one who sees beyond the walls that surround us. So then, we shall not be reluctant or afraid to take the big leaps, placing our total trust in Him alone. And once we place our trust in Him, we shouldn't be anxious about where we land.

Keep well, everyone
