PARISH SAFEGUARDING COMMITTEE

St Anthony's parishioners with a background in the law, police, OH&S, medicine and child safety are invited to be part of a parish safeguarding committee to develop policies for the safety and wellbeing of children and vulnerable people. Once the lockdown is ended, we will meet with Tamara Cugnetto of the Professional Standards Unit, Melbourne.

To be part of this committee please email St Anthony's Parish Office. The mission of the Safeguarding Committee is described at cam.org.au/safeguarding-children-young-people-and-vulnerable-persons.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS governance.melbourne

On January 1 2021 parish primary schools, diocesan and regional colleges will be incorporated in a new company, Melbourne Archdiocese Catholic Schools Ltd. Incorporation is required by the recommendations of the Child Abuse Royal Commission and the Victorian Government. The Archbishop of Melbourne is the sole member of MACS; a Board of Directors will be assembled under a Constitution. Priests are working hard to protect parish assets. Two documents must be signed by 30 October: School Transfer Agreement and Right to Use Land and Buildings. MACS has created a long list of duties for priests, but there is no provision for remuneration including use of the church. MACS also promises that it will begin to pay rent for use of land and buildings in 3 years. Parishes can use this income for mission and evangelisation, adult faith formation and catechesis, and local implementation of the Plenary Council. 142 children attend St Anthony's Catholic School, 106 families. 3 school families support Parish Stewardship.

WORLD MISSION DAY

catholicmission.org.au 1800 257 296

Two Sundays are set aside each year to support the Church's missions, in the name of Pope Francis. Catholic Mission Australia has been able to support overseas missions even though there was no major appeal in June/July. Catholic Mission asks our support which can be given on your mobile phone: send "give" to 0488 854 436. Donations can also be placed in an envelope marked "Catholic Mission" and left at St Anthony's Parish House.

ST ANTHONY'S PARISH STEWARDSHIP

Thanks to all who support St Anthony's with regular Stewardship.

Parish facilities are not being used or hired except for Tony's Café. We continue to rely on the generous support of St Anthony's parishioners in Parish Stewardship. Support for our priests and bishops ("Presbytery") can also be given electronically or placed in the Parish House letterbox. Please remember to use your Stewardship Envelope, or include your name and Stewardship number with all donations to St Anthony's Parish and Presbytery. This helps us to keep a record of giving for acknowledgement.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

Readings: Isaiah 45: 1, 4-6; Thessalonians 1:1-5; Matthew 22:15-21

Holy Gospel

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with some Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in all honesty, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because human rank means nothing to you. Give us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why are you putting me to the test? Show me the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he said, 'Whose portrait is this? Whose title?' They replied, 'Caesar's.' Then he said to them, 'Very well, pay Caesar what belongs to Caesar and God what belongs to God.' Matthew 22:15-21

YOU CAT

What duties do citizens have toward the State?

Every citizen has the duty to cooperate loyally with the civil authorities and to contribute to the Common Good in truth, justice, freedom, and solidarity.

Christians, too, should love their homeland, defend it in various ways in times of need, and gladly offer to serve civil institutions. They should exercise the right to vote and even run for office and not shirk the duty to pay just taxes. Nevertheless, within the State the individual citizen remains a free person with fundamental rights; they have the right to offer constructive criticism of the State and its organs. The State is there for the people, not the individual for the State. n376

General Intercessions

Christians live in two dimensions, citizens of the city of God, citizens of the world. Let us pray for the needs of this world, with our hearts set on the endless kingdom that is to come.

1. For those members of the Church who are called to prophetic witness against inhuman crimes and injustices.
2. For the leaders of nations who are entrusted with "what belongs to Caesar".
3. For people who are still subject to the tyranny of an atheistic political system.
4. For a sense of social responsibility as citizens, voters, and taxpayers and for the City of Glen Eira.
5. For the sick and those who care for them.
6. For those who have passed through death towards the eternal city: Fr Charles McBride, Phyllis Berenger, Tony Bartels, Elaine Arendtsz ...

Lord of all history, we place our requests in your care, knowing that all peoples, times, and events are within your provident plan. Grant the prayers of your people, through Christ our Lord.

Australian Saints

Mary Glowrey, was born in Birregurra, Victoria, in 1887. She was the third of nine children, and spent most of her childhood at Watchem in Victoria's Mallee. Her parents were of Irish descent. She attended the local primary school where she trained as a student teacher before winning a state secondary scholarship to attend the South Melbourne College. She boarded at the Good Shepherd Convent, Rosary Place, South Melbourne. Winning a University Exhibition she began an Arts degree at the University of Melbourne, but transferred to medicine, graduating MBBS in 1910 and MD in 1919.

In 1911, Glowrey became the first medical woman to be appointed as a resident in a New Zealand hospital, at Christchurch. On her return she, like several of the other early women doctors worked to improve the health and welfare of Victorian women and children, while maintaining positions at the Victorian Eye and Ear Hospital, St Vincent's Hospital and setting up a private practice in Collins Street, Melbourne. She also established a baby health clinic in Camberwell to make information about the health care of infants freely available and, during some of the big strikes of the period, helped to establish a soup kitchen for the strikers and their families as well as providing for their medical needs.

In 1916, Glowrey was appointed inaugural General President of the newly formed Catholic Women's Social Guild (now known as the Catholic Women's League of Victoria and Wagga Wagga) which sought to change society through prayer and social action. 'We owe a duty to our fellow-women and should help to ensure good conditions for them', she told Guild members. In 1917 she helped to form a Nurses Branch of the Guild and a Pupil Nurses' Association so that Catholic nurses in training in the various hospitals could keep more closely in touch with each other.

A chance reading in 1915 of a pamphlet about the appalling death rate amongst Indian babies was to change the direction of her life. Inspired by the work of Dr Agnes McLaren, an English pioneer medical woman who went to India at age 72 to establish a Catholic hospital for women, she undertook further study in the fields of gynecology, obstetrics and ophthalmology to prepare herself for mission work. In 1920, she left Australia to join the Congregation of the Society of Jesus, Mary and Joseph (a Dutch order) as its first nun-doctor missionary. Between 1927 and 1936, Dr Sr Mary cared for more than 637,000 patients. She played a pioneering role in the education of Indian doctors, nurses, midwives and pharmacists and established the Catholic Hospital Association of India in 1942.

Mary Glowrey died in Bangalore on 5 May 1957. Glowrey House, the Catholic Women's League headquarters in Nicholson Street, Fitzroy, and ACU campus Melbourne are named in her honour. Mary Glowrey was proclaimed "Servant of God" in 2013, the first step on the path to canonisation.
