Theology at the Pub "How Islam led me back to Christ"

Speaker: Charbel Raish

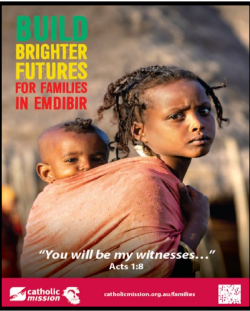

Date: Monday 7th of November 2022

Doors open: 6pm Talk starts: 7:30pm

Location: Lvl 1, European Bier Cafe, 120
Exhibition St, Melbourne

Theology at the Pub is an opportunity for Catholics (and religious of all ages) to meet and have great conversations over a meal and listen to interesting talks by engaging Catholic speakers.

Charbel was born into a Catholic home. But, in the last 6 years of school, he was influenced and challenged in his faith by Islamic friends. In his final year, he struggled to make a choice. He visited a mosque to give his life to Allah and Muhamed. But God wasn't done with him yet.
Charbel visited a church, begging God for a sign.
His life was transformed forever.

PRAYER FOR FLOOD VICTIMS "PRAYER FOR RELIEF EFFORTS"

God our Advocate,
we pray for all of those who have suffered the devastating consequences of this flood. We lift up the humanitarian organizations that are reaching out to meet the needs of those who have been displaced. We pray that they will be able to organize their efforts to provide efficiently for the needs of those suffering. Help them swiftly provide for immediate needs for food and shelter. We pray for Your direction in how we can give financially to one or more of these organizations. Amen.

Mission Sunday

In a short duration about 2000 years Christianity has become the largest of all the religions in the world. Christianity is well known not only for its number of followers, but for its quality as well. Christianity is appreciated for its involvement in the areas of social work, education, health care, struggle against injustice etc. This means that on this Mission Sundays we reflect not only on our involvement in spreading of our faith, but also on our involvement in the overall well being of humanity.

Today let's reflect on the question 'how do I promote the Gospel and humanitarian works?' In other words, let each of us ask oneself 'what is my response to the 2000 year old command of the Lord? "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit"'.

There are people who say that this command of the Lord is irrelevant today; the times have changed, or that it does not concern me; or it's the concern of the Pope, bishops, priests religious etc. There are also people who say that it is sufficient to live an exemplary life. There are also people who say that it is wrong to go about proclaiming our faith, for it might cause conflicts.

On Mission Day we are reminded that missionary work is more relevant today than ever before, and that it concerns every baptised Christian, no matter what position he/she holds. It is the baptism that gives us the right and duty to proclaim the gospel. An exemplary life of a Christian is a good witness. Yet that is not sufficient. It does not help the needy.

Even amidst the growing differences of opinions and difficulties, Christ's command to evangelize all peoples continues to be our priority. No reason can justify us taking it easy. Because, there are countless people who are waiting and thirsting for the truth, love and care. We are called to reach out to them. Will our good examples alone help them?

The church is missionary by its nature. That is its character and its identity. There are religions which don't care to spread their faith; that is because they are not missionary by nature. But we are. Our missionary character comes from our founder Himself, who went about preaching and also asked to do the same. St Paul in 1st Cor.9:16 says, "Woe to me if I do not preach the Gospel".

Always remember that unseen to us there are missionaries, social workers and a good number of faithful lay volunteers spending their lives in reaching out to the needy. They are in the field on our behalf, too, because we cannot be there. They need our prayers as well as our financial support. Therefore, a generous contribution from a generous heart would be much appreciated .

The church today requests contribution from us not because we have a lot, but, because the church heavily depends on its members for the numerous good works we, the church is engaged in. If Christianity has grown to be the largest religion and doing well, it is made possible by the generosity of one and all.

Man: God, to you what's a million years like?

God: Like a second.

Man: To you what's a million dollars like?

God: Like a cent

Man: Can I have a cent?

God: Yes, just a second.
