Our Parish Saints II

St Anthony of Padua, always put Christ at the centre of his life and thinking, of his action, and of his preaching. This is a characteristic feature of Franciscan theology: Christocentrism. Franciscan theology willing contemplates and invites others to contemplate the mysteries of the Lord's humanity, the man Jesus, and in a special way the mystery of the Nativity but also the vision of the Crucified One. St Anthony writes: "Christ who is your life is hanging before you, so that you may look at the Cross as in a mirror. Nowhere other than looking at himself in the mirror of the Cross can man better understand how much he is worth".

In meditating on these words we are better able to understand the importance of the image of the Crucified One for our culture, for our humanity that is born from the Christian faith. Precisely by looking at the Crucified One we see, as St Anthony says, how great are the dignity and worth of the human being. At no other point can we understand how much the human person is worth, precisely because God makes us so important, considers us so important that, in his opinion, we are worthy of this suffering: thus all human dignity appears in the mirror of the Crucified One and our gazing upon him is ever a source of acknowledgement of human beings.

Dear friends, may Anthony of Padua, so widely venerated by the faithful, intercede for the whole Church and especially for those who are dedicated to preaching; let us pray the Lord that he will help us learn a little of this art from St. Anthony. May preachers, drawing inspiration from his example be effective in their communication by taking pains to combine solid and sound doctrine with sincere and fervent devotion. Let us pray that priests and deacons will carry out with concern this ministry of the proclamation of the word of God, making it timely for the faithful, especially through liturgical homilies. May they effectively present the eternal beauty of Christ, just as Anthony recommended: "If you preach Jesus he will melt hardened hearts; if you invoke him he will soften harsh temptations; if you think of him he will enlighten your mind; if you read of him he will satisfy your intellect"

Rejoice and be Glad (Mt 5:12)

Hard times may come, when the cross casts its shadow, yet nothing can destroy the supernatural joy that "adapts and changes, but always endures, even as a flicker of light born of our personal certainty that, when everything is said and done, we are infinitely loved". That joy brings deep security, serene hope and a spiritual fulfilment that the world cannot understand or appreciate.

Christian joy is usually accompanied by a sense of humour. We see this clearly, for example, in Saint Thomas More, Saint Vincent de Paul and Saint Philip Neri. Ill humour is no sign of holiness. "Remove vexation from your mind" (Eccl 11:10). We receive so much from the Lord "for our enjoyment" (1 Tim 6:17), that sadness can be a sign of ingratitude. We can get so caught up in ourselves that we are unable to recognize God's gifts.
