Our Parish Saints IV

Maria Goretti was born in 1890. Her father died when she and the other five children in her family were small. At twelve, Maria was very pretty. She helped her mother on the farm, in the house and with the children. She never complained because they were so poor. In fact, she cheered up her poor mother and was a great comfort to her. She went to Mass regularly even though it meant a two-hour walk. Maria also received the sacrament of Reconciliation as often as she could.

A young neighbour, Alexander, tried a few times to make Maria sin. She refused and did her best to avoid him. July 5, 1902, was a hot summer day. Maria was alone in the cottage mending clothes. Alexander came again to try to make her sin. He dragged her into a room. When she tried to scream, he stuffed a handkerchief into her mouth. Yet Maria managed to keep saying, "No, No! It is a mortal sin. God doesn't want it. If you commit it, you will go to hell." And she struggled as much as she could. Alexander panicked. He stabbed her furiously with a dagger. Then he ran away.

Maria was taken to hospital, where she died. During her last hours, she forgave her murderer. Her only worry was for her mother. With great joy, the girl received Jesus in Holy Communion. Then she went to heaven. Alexander was sent to prison. For a long time, he did not repent of his horrible crime. Then one night he had a dream or vision of Maria offering him flowers. From that moment on, he was a changed man. When he was freed from prison after 27 years, his first visit was to the Goretti home. He asked Maria's mother for forgiveness. Alexander spent the rest of his life as the gardener in a nearby monastery.

Maria was declared "blessed" by Pope Pius XII on April 27, 1947. Three years later, on July 25, 1950, the same Pope declared Maria a saint. He called her 'a martyr of holy purity.'
We can help ourselves live our Christian values if we participate in the Mass and receive the sacrament of Reconciliation.

We can also choose good movies, videos, books and magazines. When we feel weak, we can ask St Maria Goretti to help us be the kind of Christian she was. Relics of St Maria Goretti rest in the altar of St Anthony's Church, Glen Huntly.

Welcome!

We welcome visiting priests Fr Neil Fryer (Saturday 6.30pm, Sunday 5pm) and Fr James Grant (Sunday morning Masses).

Maintenance Collection

Our monthly Maintenance Collection will be taken up next weekend 27-28 October. A quote ($7,000) has been received to clear the church gutters of leaves and other detritus, hire of a cherry picker, and inspection of the slate roof. In heavy rain, water enters the roof of the work/flower sacristy. This sort of work is part of regular maintenance of parish buildings.

World Mission Day

Today is World Mission Day, a day of prayer and support for the Church's missions. A special collection will be taken up after Holy Communion. Thank you for your generosity!

ST ANTHONY'S PIETY STALL

Now well stocked with religious items (statues, crosses, rosary beads), greeting cards, Melbourne Catholic, Entertainment Book, St Anthony's Centenary History and Cook Book. It is open after all weekend Masses.

CHRISTUS REX PILGRIMAGE www.crex.org

Friday 26 - Sunday 28 October, St Patrick's Cathedral Ballarat to Sacred Heart Cathedral Bendigo. Meals catered. BYO camping gear.

ALL SOULS DAY - FRIDAY 2nd NOVEMBER

A book has been placed on the altar rail in front of Our Lady's statue at St Anthony's church. Please write the names of your deceased family and friends, to be prayed for on All Souls' Day. There will be a short service at the Memorial Garden after Mass. Please feel free to place fresh flowers at the Garden in memory.

November is a special time to pray for the dead. A plenary indulgence may be gained for the dead, once only, by visiting a church on 2 November and praying the Lord's Prayer and the Creed. Three conditions are required for gaining the indulgence: sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer for the Pope's intentions (Norms 15,7)

MUSCLE FOR MARRIAGE

Wednesdays 10, 17, 24, 31 October, 7-9pm

Cardinal Knox Centre, 383 Albert Street, East Melbourne Marriage can be tough but like anything worth having. How do we build the strength and endurance to go the distance? Classical wisdom tells us that character and virtues are the key. Run over four Wednesday evenings in October.

RETREAT FOR FIRST COMMUNICANTS

Retreat for First Communicants and their family on Sunday 28 October after 11am Mass. BYO lunch.

Rejoice and be Glad (Mt 5:12)

Complacency is seductive; it tells us that there is no point in trying to change things, that there is nothing we can do, because this is the way things have always been and yet we always manage to survive. By force of habit we no longer stand up to evil. We "let things be", or as others have decided they ought to be. Yet let us allow the Lord to rouse us from our torpor, to free us from our inertia. Let us rethink our usual way of doing things; let us open our eyes and ears, and above all our hearts, so as not to be complacent about things as they are, but unsettled by the living and effective word of the risen Lord.

Let us ask the Lord for the grace not to hesitate when the Spirit calls us to take a step forward. Let us ask for the apostolic courage to share the Gospel with others and to stop trying to make our Christian life a museum of memories. In every situation, may the Holy Spirit cause us to contemplate history in the light of the risen Jesus. In this way, the Church will not stand still, but constantly welcome the Lord's surprises.
