HAPPY FATHERS DAY

- A special blessing for fathers and grand fathers is offered at Mass today
- The annual Fathers Day collection is taken up at Mass today, to provide extra support for sick and retired priests. Each weekend 12.5% of the Presbytery collection is set aside for 89 priests who have reached age 75. Donations of $2+ are tax deductible. Envelopes are available in the church porches.

Pope Francis recently spoke of all the hardworking priests who have tirelessly and honourably given their lives in service of God's people. He compared them to incense "which silently rises up to heaven. Their weariness goes straight to the heart of the Father".

In the short time since I have come to Melbourne, I have already met these same priests among you. On your behalf, I want to thank these humble stewards of God's grace for us.

It has been a wonderful custom in the Archdiocese of Melbourne to allow the faithful of the Archdiocese to show something of their own appreciation through an annual Fathers' Day Appeal. The appeal goes to the care of retired and sick priests by providing suitable accommodation, medical assistance and a comfortable standard of living for them. May I commend the Appeal to you. Archbishop Comonsoli

MEDITATION

Love for the poor must be in every age the distinguishing mark of Christians. The poor deserve not just a few alms; they have a claim to justice. For Christians there is a special obligation to share their goods. Our example in love for the poor is Christ.

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven”. That is the first sentence in Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount. There is material, emotional, intellectual and spiritual poverty. Christians must look after the needy of this earth with great consideration, love and perseverance. After all, on no other point will they be evaluated by Christ so decisively as on their way of treating the poor: “As you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me”
